Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's passage marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry in the Gospel of Matthew. This Gospel is especially designed to highlight the continuity and fulfillment of the covenants and prophecies of the Old Testament. Through the life, teaching, and ministry of Jesus, culminating in his death and resurrection. We notice that continuity in the words Jesus uses as he begins preaching, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand". These are the same words we heard from John the Baptist during Advent. But the transition from John to Jesus isn't repackaging the same material. In his ministry, Jesus will break open the meaning of repentance, forgiveness of sins, and the kingdom of heaven while he himself brings it about. Notice that it is Jesus who calls the first of his disciples, not the other way around. While it was common for a rabbi (or teacher) to have followers, the standard procedure was for a student to choose a mentor, not the other way around. This is a dynamic we see repeatedly throughout Scripture because it is always God who takes the initiative to pull on our hearts, to prompt us, to reveal himself to us. Our faith is a response to God's invitation to know and love him. Just as Jesus calls Andrew, Simon (Peter), James, and John, he also calls us to discipleship. We are called by God to be disciples; to live out our faith in word and deed, to be morally good, to act with justice, and to bring the good news of God's love to everyone we encounter in our daily lives. Being on the path of discipleship doesn't mean never making mistakes. Rather, the expectation is that you continue to try to do what is right, and you take responsibility and seek forgiveness when you fail. It's more of a lifelong journey than a one-time decision, and it often leads to the unexpected. Until their encounter with him, Andrew, Peter, James, and John probably thought they would continue to be professional fishermen. Instead, Jesus called them to a whole new, unexpected way of life; to leave behind their old ways of being in the world and re-envision their identity as Disciples of Christ.

As church attendance numbers continue to fade across the nation and online services become very convenient, it is important to remember why church attendance for you and your family matters so much. You cannot serve from your sofa. You cannot have community of faith on your sofa. You cannot experience the power of a room full of believers, worshipping together on your sofa. Christians aren't consumers. We are contributors. We don't watch. We engage. We give. We sacrifice. We encourage. We pray by laying hands on the hurting. We do life together! The church needs you & you need the church! (We are glad we are able to bring the Word of God via Live Stream to those unable to come to church! We pray for you!)

A gift of your life insurance policy is an excellent way to make a PLANNED gift to St. Bernard Church. If you have a life insurance policy that has outlasted its original purpose, consider making a gift of your insurance policy to St. Bernard R.C. Church. For example, you may have purchased a policy to provide for minor children and they are now financially independent adults. To make a gift of life insurance, please contact your life insurance provider, request a beneficiary designation form from the insurer and include St. Bernard R.C. Church as the beneficiary of your policy.

Celebrate National Compliment Day
Tuesday, January 24, 2022

National Compliment Day is an unofficial holiday that falls annually on January 24th. The purpose of this holiday is to say something nice to your friends, family, and co-workers. After all, giving out compliments not only makes the receiver happy and helps build up trust between that person and you but studies have shown that giving out compliments also has a beneficial effect on the person giving out the compliment. In other words, give a compliment and you may make yourself happy as well.

Stewardship Thought

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." Matthew 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

Winter Weather Worries

Winter weather is here and that means ice and snow may make it difficult for some people to get to church and many "Snowbirds" take flight to Florida for the Winter months. But parish bills keep growing during the winter, including increased heating costs and snow removal expenses. You can make sure your parish support doesn't stop just when we need it the most. Check out our simple, safe and secure online giving program at SAINTBERNARDBROOKLYN.COM then click on the DONATE button and you will be guided through the giving process. You can donate from your Cell Phone. Simply text SUNDAY to 516-400-4140 and you will be guided through the giving process. Envelope users can just place their envelope in the collection basket or mail it to the Parish. We are truly grateful for your vision and your commitment to maintaining our Parish as a beacon of faith and hope for others. Thank you for your support and prayers throughout these challenging times. Please consider joining the growing number of dedicated givers! We are most grateful to all those who make every effort to give consistently whether electronically or through the weekly offering basket. It really helps us plan and meet our budget.
