Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
The Epiphany of the Lord

In Common usage, "an epiphany" refers to a sudden insight or intuitively understanding something's meaning. The earliest understanding of the word, however, was specifically linked to the divine—a manifestation or appearance of the glory of God, where divine truth is revealed. In the story of the Magi, clearly the birth of Jesus Christ is that manifestation of the glory of God. In today's Gospel, we follow the Magi, foreigners, nonbelievers, and outsiders to the faith, who have been given a sign in the form of a rising star. Think about the times in your life when you have looked for a sign, or perhaps even asked God for a sign to help guide you. The interesting thing about signs is that you have to be both open to seeing them and willing to follow them. Otherwise, it's pretty easy to ignore or dismiss them as a random coincidence. The Magi know this isn't just any star; there is something significant that draws them toward it. They must have done their research, because even as a non-Israelites, they somehow know enough to ask specific questions. As outsiders to the faith, the Magi would be considered the people least likely to seek and find the promised messiah, yet there they are. The experts, on the other hand, seem to be so content in their knowledge and positions of power that they have forgotten the purpose of their faith and religious practices: to be in a relationship with God. The Magi are willing to be guided by the light. Throughout Scripture, light has been a metaphor for the presence of divine goodness and truth. Today we celebrate that God come to all who seek him with a sincere heart. We see that sincerity in the Magi's response of overwhelming joy, respect, and generosity.

We offer our sincere Congratulations to Deacon Samuel upon his Ordination to the Diaconate. He has and will continue to be a great blessing for our Parish Community most especially now in his new role of service as an ordained Deacon. We look forward to his priestly ordination this coming June. Let us continue to keep him in our thoughts and prayers as he progresses on his journey to the priesthood.

As this Christmas season comes to a close we would like to again thank everyone who memorialized any of our Christmas decorations. Our church is really a beautiful place to be and looks the way it does because of all your help! If you memorialized a poinsettia plant or ornament, you are more than welcome to please take them home following the 11:30a.m. Mass. You can find the poinsettia plant that was memorialized by you and take it home. Each plant has a personalized tag in the plant with the names of who the plant was memorialized for and by. Please allow these people to take their plants home first. Any plants that remain here in church during the week will be free for anyone to take home. Ornaments will be available during the week in the vestibule. Please come anytime during the week from 9:00am-2:00pm or during the weekend.

This weekend's second collection is a Diocesan Collection for The Diocesan Mission.
Thank you always for your generosity! It is greatly appreciated!

Stewardship Thought

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." Matthew 2:11

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

Winter Weather Worries

Winter weather is here and that means ice and snow may make it difficult for some people to get to church and many "Snowbirds" take flight to Florida for the Winter months.
But parish bills keep growing during the winter, including increased heating costs and snow removal expenses. You can make sure your parish support doesn't stop just when we need it the most. Check out our simple, safe and secure online giving program at SAINTBERNARDBROOKLYN.COM then click on the DONATE button and you will be guided through the giving process. Please consider joining the growing number of dedicated givers! We are most grateful to all those who make every effort to give consistently whether electronically or through the weekly offering basket. It really helps us plan and meet our budget.

Bulletin Advertisers

As you read our weekly bulletin please take a moment to look over our advertisers on the back pages. These local businesses support what we do here at St. Bernard and enable us to have a weekly bulletin.

We invite you to please support them with your patronage as a thank you for what they are doing for us throughout the year.
