Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
First Sunday of Lent

It is often easy to view Jesus as fully divine. He performed miracles, including raising Lazarus from death and healing a blind man and a paralyzed man. Miracles, by their very nature, point to God's power working in the world. Only God performs miracles; therefore Jesus is God. The stories that we hear, the lessons that we learn, all point to Jesus as being fully divine, as having miraculous powers that we, as humans, do not and cannot possess. Sometimes it is more difficult to view Jesus as fully human-as a toddler or a teenager, as an adult who was faced with the temptation to sin. As a person with friends who cried when his friend Lazarus died. As someone who needed time by himself to pray and reflect. Because Jesus was both fully divine and fully human, he was all of those things. He was capable of performing incredible miracles. He rose on the third day from the dead. He is God, but he was also human. We are taught that Jesus had free will because he was fully human. He was not God's puppet. He was a human being, like all of us, facing the same struggles, obstacles and difficulties. We hear in this gospel that the Spirit drove Jesus into the desert, where he is tempted by Satan. Jesus feels what we feel. He is tempted to choose the wrong path and the easy way. As God, he has so many tools at his disposal, and he could have used those powers and abilities to be selfish, greedy, and to do evil. But, he chose not to and instead cooperated with God's divine will. Jesus remains in the desert for forty days, and this influenced how we come to our modern understanding of the Lenten season. Lent lasts for forty days and is focused on resisting temptation, on allowing our hearts to be purified by God. We have to allow God's grace and mercy to flow through us to others, and in order to do so, we too must turn away from sin and temptation. The word "conversion" originates from the Latin word meaning to turn around or transform. Lent is all about conversion -turning away from sin and turning toward God, we transform our hearts and our whole beings.

Josephine Trincilla

Your wings were ready but our hearts were not!

Loving You Always & Forever

Your Family

If you would like to add to any of our Holy Family Memorials "In Memory of" or "In honor of" your loved ones, forms are available in the church & Rectory.

Small Faith Sharing Groups

For 7 years, our parish has been involved in Arise/Why Catholic. These small groups are faith sharing groups in parishioner's homes. We will be starting a new phase of small groups based on the Sunday Bible readings. If you would like to be a part of this, please leave your name, phone number and email address in the rectory.

Holy Family Society

We are encouraging families to join our Holy Family Society Requirements:

- Come to Mass (ideally every Sunday) but at lest once a month
- Say a Rosary at home once a month
- Have a picture of the Holy Family in your home
- Do one thing a year to help the poor
- Come to a Retreat Day
- Take the parish Holy Family Society Statue once and keep it for a week to pray

If you are interested, see the flyers at the back of church or see Fr. Mike or Melissa Wagner.

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for.
Thank you.

Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Stewardship Thought

"It is written: 'The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.'"
Matthew 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things, and develop and nurture heavenly things. Lent is time to repent and let go of the other "gods" we have put before God.

Special Thanks to Our Electronic Givers

We would like to thank the many families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, please contact the Parish Office or check out our website and click on the DONATE button. You will be guided through making your weekly donations online.
