Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Third Sunday of Lent

Some people consider this gospel passage somewhat scandalous. Jesus visits Samaria, and he sits down at the well in town. The well of a town served a bustling center of activity. It is the place where the women of the town would gather in the mornings and share stories and build relationships with one another. However, when Jesus sits at the well, it is empty; soon, a Samaritan woman comes to draw water from the well. What is unique is that it is the middle of the day, and many scholars comment that she comes to the well in the middle of the day because she is viewed as a social outcast due to the choices she has made in her past. When she arrives at the well, Jesus asks her for a drink from her jar. The woman is shocked for two reasons: first, she is a Samaritan and Jewish people (like Jesus) do not share things with Samaritans. Secondly, she is a woman, and in these ancient times, it was inappropriate for a single man to speak to a woman in public like this. In spite of the scandal, there is so much beauty in this passage because Jesus shows us a little bit more about who he is and, in turn, who God is. Though the woman and Jesus come from different places and worship in different ways, Jesus still offers her salvation, the water of eternal life. Regular water will run dry. Regular water hydrates one's body and is necessary, but Jesus offers an alternative. He offers the living water and life in the Spirit. What a gift he offers the women! What a gift he offers to us! Jesus shows that the living water is not only for those who are worthy, for those who always do the right thing, and make the good, ethical choices. The living water is also offered to those of us who feel unworthy, especially due to our actions and mistakes. We were washed with the water of eternal life at our baptism. The woman believes in Jesus, and in doing so, she is transformed. So much so, that she goes out to spread the Good News, to speak and teach about Jesus, and to bring others to him. Baptism has transformed us and through it we are called to share the God News with others.

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for.
Thank you.
Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Lenten Regulations

Abstinence from meat is observed on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent by Catholics 14 years of age and older.
Fasting is observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all those between the ages of 18 and 59. Those bound by this rule may take only one full meal, with two smaller meals permitted. Eating between meals is not permitted.

"Praying with Your Children"

Perhaps you've never prayed with your children. But no matter how young or old they are, it's never too late to start. Prayer is simply a conversation with God. Parents and Grandparents are invited to join Fr. Mike

Wednesday April 19th
4:15pm to 5:15pm in the rectory
For this this discussion hour
If you want more information, you can call
Fr. Mike or Mrs. Wagner 718-763-5533

Stewardship Thought

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again."
John 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us over the long run. When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only come when we follow Jesus - when we become more " God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Diocesan Lenten Pilgrimage

The Diocese of Brooklyn encourages us to visit a designated parish for some days during Lent. These will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Mass at a different Church in Brooklyn & Queens.
