Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Easter Sunday

Today we celebrate the most important holyday in our Church—the resurrection of the Lord, Easter. We hear John's account of the resurrection of Jesus. Even though we know that he is resurrected, this particular account might leave more questions than answers. If you place yourself at the scene of this Gospel, story how do you think you would feel when you came upon the empty tomb? What would you think? Would you think that Jesus' body had been moved? Or that he was raised from the dead? What would be the most likely answer? At this point in the Gospel, the disciples have been through and ordeal and are grief-stricken. Mary Magdalene, Simon, and the beloved disciple are mourning the loss of Jess. They watched him die on the cross just three days prior. Yet, when they arrive at the tomb, they are bewildered at what has happened. Mary had come to the tomb to pay her respects and visit the place where her Lord was buried. Mark's and Luke's accounts of the Gospel note that the women came to the tomb to anoint Jesus (Mark 16:1; Luke 23:55-24:1). In both cases, things were not as expected… the tomb is empty! When the other disciples go in, they see the burial cloths are still there but there is no Jesus. The scene described might remind you of a blockbuster horror or thriller movie. Three friends come upon a questionable situation; no one is sure what is going on. One does not want to enter the tomb, and so she goes to get the others. The second friend does not enter either. The third steps in bravely. In this Gospel, what happens next is not terrifying, but is confusing. The disciples are perplexed that Jesus is not in the tomb. They might have an inkling that something amazing has happened. However, the disciples do not grasp fully what has happened. Even though Jesus had told them that he would rise, the disciples hadn't understood that Jesus' metaphorical teachings on the resurrection were in fact referring to himself. We have the advantage of thousands of years of Church teaching to know about what happened on the first Easter morning. We know that Jesus had been raised from the dead. Death does not conquer Jesus. And in this moment, we rejoice in his resurrection. The disciples begin to believe in what they had seen. After watching their teacher and friend hanging on the cross, they begin to recognize that he has conquered death. We rejoice with his disciples today, as we embark on out won journey of resurrection and new life.

My Dear Friends, 2023

On behalf of the whole Parish Staff, I want to wish all of you and your families a very blessed Easter Season. You and your loved ones will be remembered at all of my Easter Masses.
I ask all of you to be Easter people who are filled with the risen Christ. People filled with joy, knowing that death has been conquered and salvation won. People filled with the knowledge that the suffering of the cross will always be followed by the joy of Easter. People filled with the spirit of love, knowing that good will always win out over evil.

Happy Easter,
Monsignor Grimaldi

Stewardship Thought

He is risen! He is truly risen! This is what the celebration of Easter is all about — the truth that Jesus was crucified for our sins and three days later rose from the dead, conquering death once and for all.

We know it's true, but this Easter Sunday, let's ask ourselves if we live as if it's true. Do we live as witnesses to the glorious reality of the Resurrection?

How can we as Christian stewards all these years later see for ourselves and so become His witnesses? We "see for ourselves" when we prayerfully read the Scriptures knowing they are a living love letter from God with a message to each one of us. We "see for ourselves" each time we receive the precious Body and Blood of our Lord in the Eucharist. We "see for ourselves" when we experience His personal and healing power in our hearts during Reconciliation. We "see for ourselves" when we pour out our lives in loving service to those around us and experience the deep satisfaction that only comes when we are imitating our Savior.

This Easter, resolve to live as if the saving power of the Resurrection is true. Experience Jesus for yourself every day from now on. You will be a powerful witness to the truth that He is risen! He is truly risen!
