Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Eighth Sunday of Easter

Today, we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, fifty days after the celebration of Easter. Pentecost marks the end of the Easter season. Much of the Church is decorated in red, and the priest is wearing red vestments. We celebrate the gifts of the Holy Spirit given to the disciples. We hear about this gift being given in the upper room in the Gospel reading, but our first reading (Acts 2:1-11) tells the story of the Pentecost event, that occurred after Jesus' ascension. Pentecost was a unique event and we often refer to it as the birthday of the Church, because it is that sending of the Spirit that enabled the apostles to spread the Good New to the whole world. This is a good reminder for us that the gift of the Holy Spirit is not a one-time gift. We too have been given the gift of the Spirit in our own lives. The Holy Spirit strengthens us, gives us courage to live as Jesus did, the wisdom and knowledge to make good choices, and so many other things. Throughout Easter Time, we have heard many Gospel stories about Jesus teaching his disciples, specifically preparing them for when he would no longer be with them. After Jesus' resurrection, he continued to teach them, alleviate their fears, and give them courage. The disciples have been frightened, since the crucifixion. They are afraid that they too will be targeted and persecuted, possibly killed as Jesus was killed. Their views are not popular, Jesus doesn't promise them that that will not happen; many of the early disciples were killed for their faith. Rather, Jesus promises that he will be with them, through the Spirit, as they proclaim his message of love, mercy, and peace to the world. Jesus shares with them the gift of the divine peace; this is not the peace of the world, but the peace of God. This gives them courage to take up his mission in the face persecution, because they rest in God and know that God is always with them. The Trinity is present and active in the sacraments of the Church. The Holy Spirit inspires us to faith, it inspires us to seek out what God is offering in the sacraments so that we can enter into a deeper relationship with God. We usually think of confirmation as the sacrament of Spirit, because we hear a prayer during the liturgy for the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. But the Holy Spirit is present in all other sacraments as well, sharing God's grace with us in the sacramental context. All of them work together to help us live the Christian life and keep Christ's peace in our hearts.

Monthly 50/50 Raffle

Diocesan Youth Choir

Under the initiative and leadership of Fr. James Kuroly and Fr. Alonzo Cox, along with Lucia Morales, Michael Fontana has been asked to begin the formation process a new diocesan music ministry in hopes to better serve the liturgical and spiritual needs of the youth of our diocese. DOBYouth Choir will be geared towards the young adults, ages 15-21 who are interested in participating in a music ministry with music leaning more towards the "Praise & Worship" style of sacred music, but will also incorporate a nice mix of all types of sacred music. At this point in the formation stage, we are reaching out to see if there is an interest for this ministry amongst the young people. If you are a young adult age 15 - 21 and are interested or know of anyone in the age range of 15 - 21 who would be interested in joining this new ministry, please send name and information to Michael Fontana @ the following email address: DOBYouthChoir@gmail.com.

Stewardship Thought

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

To receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words, and actions daily! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our circumstances, God has given us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self -centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love and mercy.

Holy Family Society

We are encouraging families to join our Holy Family Society
Requirements:

- Come to Mass (ideally every Sunday) but at lest once a month
- Say a Rosary at home once a month
- Have a picture of the Holy Family in your home
- Do one thing a year to help the poor
- Come to a Retreat Day
- Take the parish Holy Family Society Statue once and keep it for a week to pray

If you are interested, see the flyers at the back of church or see Fr. Mike or Melissa Wagner.
