Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Many of us can recall special meals we've eaten and what they have meant to us. But do you remember every meal you ever ate? Do you remember what you had for dinner three Tuesdays ago? Some meals are special and we remember, while some meals don't make such an impact. Nevertheless, they all serve the purpose of nourishing us and giving us the sustenance, we need to get to this moment today. The Eucharist is a special meal that the church shares at Christ's command and invitation. In it we partake of the Body and Blood of Christ. Maybe it was during your first Communion or at your Confirmation. Maybe there was a particularly meaningful Eucharistic Celebration in connection with a funeral or wedding. Perhaps it was on a retreat or at a time when you felt close to God. You might remember particular instances of receiving the Eucharist, but do you recall every Eucharist you have ever received? Probably not. But just like each meal you have had; every Eucharist has brought you closer to this moment today. You might not have gotten here without it. Jesus tells the crowds that he is the living bread from heaven and that they must eat this bread if they want life. The reaction of the crowd is what we might expect; they were confused. Jesus is bread? That can't be! He's the son of Mary and Joseph! Shortly after this passage in John's Gospel, the crowd abandoned Jesus. They could not understand his teaching. It was too hard. How did Jesus react? He let them leave. He did not chase after them. He did not say, "I didn't mean it! I'm just speaking metaphorically! It's just a symbol. I'm not bread to eat. Come back!" He knew it was a hard teaching because it was so different from what they were expecting of the messiah. But he held firm; he knew he was the bread of life being offered for all. Bread is a common thing, present in so many cultures around the world. It is made up of common ingredients. It is humble, simple, and accessible. So is Jesus. Jesus is humble, simple, and accessible. He is found in the common, everyday moments of our lives. Be he is heavenly, too. He makes the ordinary things extraordinary. The Eucharist is a great gift of God. When we receive it, we receive him. We partake of God. He becomes part of us, for that time he is in us. There is no time a person can be closer to God than when we receive this precious gift. Yes, we have the Scriptures where we can read the Word of God. Yes, we have the other sacraments as well. But the Eucharist is the "source and summit" of our faith. In the Eucharist we become a living temple of God on earth. What a gift! Truly, the Eucharist is the best meal we could possibly eat. Not because it tastes the best, but because it is Jesus, who dwells with us and leads us to eternal life.

My entire family, and all my friends, were awestruck by the love you poured out on my family as I commenced my journey to serve and minister to our extended family at St. Bernard. It is always extremely inspiring when people outside the community take note of the bond and love which has always been present at St. Bernard. I continue always to ask for your prayers that God may enlighten me to serve you with great love and humility. THANK YOU ONE AND ALL!! Deacon Herb Cabrera

Stewardship Thought

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. Our readings are focused on the gifts of the Word of God and the Eucharist. This feast has deep significance to those of us living the stewardship way of life. Why? As stewards, we recognize that all that we are and all that we have been given are gifts from God. We are called to treasure these gifts and use them for God's glory. Our Solemnity today and the readings for this week invite us to a deeper gratitude and better stewardship of the two sublime gifts of God's Word and the Eucharist. In our first reading from Deuteronomy, Our Heavenly Father (such a good teacher) reminds us that just as we experience physical hunger from lack of food, we become spiritually malnourished through a lack of feeding on the Word of God. It is that important. And, just as the Word of God is vital to our spiritual nourishment, so, too, is the nourishment of the Eucharist. Jesus could not make this any clearer to us: "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." Without the Eucharist, we die spiritually. But through the Eucharist, we experience a taste of heaven right now — "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." As Christian stewards, we must recognize that in the gifts of the Word of God and the Eucharist, we have everything we need to sustain us in this world and guide us to heaven. Let us resolve to steward these precious gifts well with all our hearts, always.
