Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus addresses the fear of persecution as the apostles are sent on a mission that is sure to stir up controversy, especially among those in power. Jesus implores them to "fear no one" in the face of persecution. For centuries, persecution for Christian faith ended in death for countless martyred saints. There are still places in the world today where Christians are killed for their faith. In our daily lives, though, this persecution has been repackaged as negative social consequences for doing the right thing. As Christians, our mission is to love one another as Christ loves us. It's not enough to avoid sin; love means being actively concerned for the well-being and dignity of others. Let's focus on two areas of practicing this active concern: bullying and gossip. Bullying is ongoing, unwanted aggressive behavior, in a situation where there is some imbalance of power. The word "unwanted" is crux. Sometimes we tell ourselves that it's just joking around; we don't really mean it. When it's unwanted, the teasing, mocking, insults, and name calling are bullying tactics that intimidate and harm. This includes manipulating someone to do something they don't want to do, whether it's pressure to share homework or do something immoral. Targets are often the subject of rumors and lies, intentionally excluded or left out, and may be pushed, shoved, tripped receive threats, or even have their property destroyed. Obviously, a person of faith should never engage in this hateful, hurtful behavior. As followers of Christ, we are called to go further than avoiding this sin we must actively stand up, speak out, and bring an end to such behavior. Talking, texting, or posting about people behind their backs is gossip; it's sharing details about someone's life that don't actually involve you. Even if it's true, it's not your truth to share. Avoid this sin: don't talk about people and don't encourage it by listening. Do not be afraid to speak up and put an end to the gossip. Failing to stop it is a failure to love. At its core, sin is a failure to love. Jesus implores us to be more concerned about the ham these sins have on our soul than the pain of social consequences. We matter too much to God.

Monthly 50/50 Raffle

Contribution is $25 and the proceeds will be used for the ongoing renovation and rebuilding of the parish facilities. Winner takes home half the amount collected for the given month. Simply drop your entry at the rectory or in the weekly collection basket.
The next winner will be picked on July 5, 2023

May's Winner of $237.50 is
Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth MacBride Jr.

We regret to announce the passing away of Fr. Vincent Gallo, previous pastor of St. Bernard Church. Fr. Gallo's funeral took place last Tuesday. All arrangements were private. Let us please remember Fr. Gallo and the repose of his soul in your prayers. If you would like to contribute to the purchase of a gold leaf in his name, please drop off $10 to the rectory in an envelope to Sandra Arcati and please make sure your name and address are on the envelope so it can be noted in the card. If you have any questions about the collection you can call Sandra at the rectory. Thank you.

The Fruits of your ACA Vocation Support

On June 3rd, many of us rejoiced at the Co-Cathedral of St. Joseph where four men were ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Robert Brennan, including our very own (now) Father Samuel Mwiwawi!

How important is a priest? Simply put: "no Priest, no Eucharist". This is why vocation support is at the heart of the Annual Catholic Appeal, allocating 31% of the annual ACA goal amount of $8 million to vocations. The ACA provides everyone in the diocese the opportunity to participate in the future of the Church by contributing to the formation of men who may one day be priests in their own parishes. Thanks to the fervent prayers for vocations of God's people and their financial contributions to the Annual Catholic Appeal, the future of vocations in the Diocese of Brooklyn looks promising indeed. Currently there are more than 40 seminarians being formed to become our future priests in Brooklyn and Queens. This is a success story on how the ACA impacts parish life.

Operation Backpack

Hosted by Matthew 25
Think it's too early to think about back-to-school?
Not for Operation Backpack!
Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.
Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.
We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.
Won't you please consider donating a new backpack?
We will not be collecting school supplies
ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. RCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions. RCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.

Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Stewardship Thought

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." MATTHEW 10:32

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!
