Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The correct answer is 1! In most cases, 1+1+1=3, but not today in "religious math." Today we are talking about the Trinity; God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit: one God three persons. It is hard to define the Trinity exactly and fully understand God because it is a mystery of our faith. This doesn't mean that we can't say anything about it, rather, it is a mystery we can learn more about and break open through the help of great theologians and holy men and women. Ultimately though, we cannot know the fullness of God because we are not God. While the Father, Son and Spirit are three different persons, they all share the same essence or nature – God's nature. Because they share the one nature, they are one. It is such a mystery because as humans, we don't experience a union quite like that. God is so completely unique in this way. There is nothing else like God! But you are made in God's image, so consequently, there is nothing quite like you, either. One thing that we know about the Trinity is that it is a relationship of love. The father loves the Son and the Son loves the father. The love that flows between them is the Holy Spirit. This love is so great, so infinite, so amazing that it cannot be contained in and of itself. It overflows outside of itself. We might even say that the overflow of love of the Trinity is expressed in creation and in you and me. We are products of the love of God. That is why today's Gospel reading is incredibly beautiful. God loved the world so much he sent his Son to save it. This is the nature of God; an abundance of love. God doesn't hate you. God made you and loves you, no matter what. In you resides this love of the Trinity. The father sent the Son on a mission to bring you home. The Holy Spirit guides us to our heavenly home. Of course, this love of God is a mystery, because love is a mystery. There aren't enough words in our language to fully describe love. We can understand the concept. We might use analogies. Artists use poems, music, and paint. All of these seek to describe this thing so beautiful as love. God is love. There aren't enough words in our language to describe God either. We can try. We can seek to understand. We can use art, literature, music, and reason. Ultimately this is a mystery. But this mystery has a name and a mission. This mystery loves you. This mystery has come to unite you to itself. So even if we do not understand fully the Trinity, we are called to believe. Believe you are loved. Believe that God loves you. Believe that he will never abandon you. If you do that, you have eternal life.

Diocesan Youth Choir

Under the initiative and leadership of Fr. James Kuroly and Fr. Alonzo Cox, along with Lucia Morales, Michael Fontana has been asked to begin the formation process a new diocesan music ministry in hopes to better serve the liturgical and spiritual needs of the youth of our diocese. DOBYouth Choir will be geared towards the young adults, ages 15-21 who are interested in participating in a music ministry with music leaning more towards the "Praise & Worship" style of sacred music, but will also incorporate a nice mix of all types of sacred music. At this point in the formation stage, we are reaching out to see if there is an interest for this ministry amongst the young people. If you are a young adult age 15 - 21 and are interested or know of anyone in the age range of 15 - 21 who would be interested in joining this new ministry, please send name and information to Michael Fontana @ the following email address: DOBYouthChoir@gmail.com.

Stewardship Thought

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son…" JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.
