Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hyperbole is an exaggerated expression not meant to be taken literally. Our culture is so used to using these for emphasis that we have actually managed to change the dictionary definition of "literally" to include the informal use for things that are, in fact, not literally true. So, when Jesus tells the first two parables, about the treasure buried in the field and the pearl of great price, we tend to hear them as hyperbole, which lessens the double punch. The first thing these parables establish is the incomprehensible, priceless worth of God's kingdom. The value is so great that upon discovery, each person joyfully gives up everything they have so that they can keep it. There are times in which some disastrous experience suddenly imposes incredible restrictions upon us, leaving us without power, water, a home, a loved one, or some combination of loss, such that we are forced to learn to live without. That kind of sacrifice is not what Jesus is talking about. Rather, the characters in these parables are driven to go all in because of a profound sense of the return on investment. After having a glimpse of heaven, of eternal life with God, there is no doubt that this is the only thing that matters. The third parable about the net thrown into the sea does not seem to flow with the message of the first two. The treasure and the pearl emphasize the supreme value of the kingdom, while the net seems to be more aligned with the message from last week's parable on the weeds and the wheat. Good and evil will coexist in this life, but at the end of time, the righteous will be saved and the wicked destroyed. The thing is that if we don't actually receive the message about valuing and prioritizing the goodness and truth of God beyond all worldly desires, we are placing ourselves in the same category as the weeds and the bad fish who will be excluded from the kingdom. Throughout the Gospels, the disciples are usually confused or frightened and need Jesus to clarify and encourage. At the conclusion of these three parables, however, they are abundantly clear on the message and the eternal consequences for ignoring it.

FEAST OF ST. BERNARD

This year the
Feast of St. Bernard
falls on Sunday, August 20th.
We will have a special Mass at 11:00am. We will have a procession around the block followed by food. Let's take pride in our Parish by celebrating our Patronal Feast.

Purgatorial Society

Louise McDonald

Matthew 25 Ministry

On the 3rd Sunday of every month we will have a food collection of non-perishable foods.
We will alternate giving the food to food pantries at Mary Queen of Heaven & St. Athanasius.
Please be as generous as possible!

Spanish Mass

The next Spanish Mass will be on Saturday, August 12, 2023
At 7:00pm.
This Mass is for all Vocations.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. RCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions.

RCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.

Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Homebound

If you know of any homebound person that would like to have Communion, Please call Fr. Mike.

Stewardship Thought

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."
- ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that in our Stewardship God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

Operation Backpack

Hosted by Matthew 25

Think it's too early to think about back-to-school? Not for Operation Backpack! Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.

Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.

We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.

Won't you please consider donating a new backpack? We will not be collecting school supplies ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.

Live Stream Schedule

Join us every Wednesday, Friday at 8:30am and Sunday at 11:30am for live streaming of Mass on our facebook page @stbernardrc, on our website at Saintbernardbrooklyn.com or directly from the link below:

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for.
Thank you.
Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Perform A Random Act of Kindness

A 'helper's high' - Be Kind
Putting the well-being of others before our own without expecting anything in return — or what is called being altruistic — stimulates the reward centers of the brain, studies show.
4444 students from 25 schools in Gwalior stand together and form a smiley face by holding colored cloths in Gwalior on February 8, 2012 in an attempt to break the Guiness Book World Record of the largest human smiley face. AFP PHOTO/STR (Photo credit should read STRDEL/AFP/Getty Images)
Those feel-good chemicals flood our system, producing a sort of "helper's high." Volunteering, for example, has been shown to minimize stress and improve depression.
That's not all: The same activity can also reduce the risk for cognitive impairment and even help us live longer.
One reason for this, experts say, is because kindness contributes to our sense of community and belonging. And that, studies have found, is a key contributor to a healthy, longer life.
