Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

At this point in the Gospel, Jesus had just been all over the region of Galilee, teaching, preaching, and performing miracles. Yet, again and again he kept encountering opposition and rejection. Despite all his good works and mighty deeds, many stubbornly and arrogantly refused to believe. In response, Jesus reproached the unrepentant towns, shouting "Woe to you!" (Matthew11:21). Essentially, things were not going well, and Jesus was trying to get across the seriousness of what was happening. It was in the midst of this exasperation and pointed criticism that Jesus offers his praise to God for what was going well. Despite all the unbelief, there were some who did listen and believe. At the time of Jesus, scribes and Pharisees were the learned religious scholars. They read and studied Scripture and took responsibility for religious instruction. Whether they arrogantly presumed to know it all or they just didn't like how Jesus challenged them, they were adamantly closed-minded. Thanks to the grace of God, acceptance of Jesus depends only upon our openness. Being open is not easy as it sounds; it takes both courage and wisdom. When we are open to new ideas, we still need to filter them with truth, goodness, and love. When our hearts and minds are truly open, we are using God's gift of reason to think critically and ask why we accept or reject certain ideas or actions. After praising God for goodness amid frustration, few of us today are familiar with a yoke: some hear it spoken as "yolk" and think Jesus is talking about eggs. A yoke was a curved beam of wood that lays across the back of the necks of two animals (like oxen), to be used for pulling heavy objects. To take Christ's yoke upon us means to be obedient to his Word and to share with him the burden. By telling us that his yoke is easy, Jesus promises that while discipleship will require effort, it will not be a heavy burden, and in it, we will find the rest of inner peace.

Monthly 50/50 Raffle

Annual Catholic Appeal 2023
DIOCESE OF BROOKLYN

The work through the Annual Catholic Appeal is NOW more important than ever. We are responding to the needs of our community by:

- Supporting our young people as they struggle to remain grounded in their faith, including those considering a call to the priesthood or religious life.
- Offering food distribution sites across the diocese.
- Providing tuition help for families enrolling their children in our Catholic Schools.
- Supporting hospital chaplains who are comforting the sick, dying, and our healthcare workers.
- Caring for our senior and elderly priests.

We want you to know that the church is doing great things to help people and spread the message of God's love throughout Brooklyn and Queens.

For many years now, we have had a donor, who wishes to be anonymous, donate a large sum to the ACA. This donation has assured that St. Bernard Parish would go over their Diocesan goal. Unfortunately, we believe, we can no longer count on this generous donation. We need your help!

Active Parish Campaign Summary

Amount Pledged: $44,902. (as of 6/26/2023)

Annual Appeal Goal for 2023: $57,669 Amount Received: $31,953 Donors: 85

THAT IS ONLY 8.5% OF OUR FAMILIES

There are over 1,000 registered families in our Parish!

If you have already made your pledge – Thank you!

If you have not - Please support the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal

Operation Backpack

Hosted by Matthew 25

Think it's too early to think about back-to-school?
Not for Operation Backpack!
Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.
Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.
We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.
Won't you please consider donating a new backpack?
We will not be collecting school supplies
ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for.
Thank you.
Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Stewardship Thought

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."-Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us. Let us resolve to follow in the footsteps of our Savior, embracing the humble path of stewardship. It is the path that leads to peace here and now, and ultimately leads us to heaven.
