Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel reading today, Jesus speaks very clearly to the disciples and to the crowd that is gathered. He tells the crowd that the Pharisees have set their teachings on Moses' law and that is a good thing. In doing so, he creates a common ground between himself and this group that are normally seen as the antagonists in the Gospel. It is important to remember that Jesus himself was a faithful Jew and would have followed the las of Moses and participated in the religious festivals and rituals of his time. But that doesn't stop Jesus from also calling the Pharisees out and showing them that their actions don't really reflect God's law. He warns the people and the disciples not to follow the actions of the Pharisees. This is part of the point Jesus was making in this Gospel passage. The Pharisees were saying the right things and it looked like they were doing the right things, but Jesus knew better; their actions were superficial and were meant to enhance their status. Jesus says to do what the Pharisees say, not what they do. Actions speak louder than words, right? Unfortunately, the Pharisees know the words but don't follow through on the actions. Jesus also points out that the Pharisees place many rules on the people as they try to obey God but that they don't see the suffering of others and they don't reach out to help them. Being demanding of someone and not willing to help them does not bring holiness to anyone. Jesus goes on to point out that the Pharisees want to be seen. Hey want others to outwardly regard them with respect and dignity as leaders of the local religious community. While recognition is not a bad thing, the way the Pharisees go about getting it is. It feels good to be recognized-for something good that you do, for a good grade that you earned, for a good recital you had, for a good game you played, and so on. Eliciting that feeling for the wrong reasons, though, is what the Pharisees were doing. They were praying in public, not out of desire to be close to God or help others be close to him. They were praying in the open to draw attention to themselves. Our intentions are an important part of our actions. We know that our faith is not something to show off about. Rather, we should adopt an attitude of humble faithfulness. We are called to follow God's commandments and the teachings of our faith. These put us in a relationship with God and call us to serve others out of love for them and in imitation of Christ.

YEAR OF THE SUNDAY MASS

This year in St. Bernard's is the Year of the Sunday Mass. Since 2017, the diocese of Brooklyn has seen 37% decrease in Mass attendance. This has happened in our parish too. The Sunday Eucharist is the most important event each week in our parish. We hear God's word.
We receive Jesus himself in Communion.
We are sent into the world to live as disciples.
We all know people on our block and in our family that are not coming to Mass. Pray for them and give them an invitation to come with you. Share WHY you come.
We will be trying different strategies this year. One is using social media better.
We now have an Instagram page. Check it out: St.bernardchurch.
We'll be telling you more in the coming weeks

Thanksgiving Liturgy

On Sunday, November 19th we will celebrate our Thanksgiving Liturgy as a Parish at the 11:30 a.m. Mass.
Parishioners are asked to bring non-perishable food items and place them in the main entrance of the church following any of the masses. All donations will be distributed through the Mary Queen of Heaven Food Pantry. St. Athanasius and our Church for the needy of our neighborhood for the holidays.
Please place any monetary donation in an envelope labeled "Food Pantry" and drop it into the collection basket.

Stewardship Thought

" Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."
- Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions is the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety and depression than ever before. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.
