Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Seventh Sunday of Easter

In today's Gospel we hear a part of Jesus' final prayer before he is betrayed and handed over to his enemies to be crucified. It is a powerful moment. Jesus, knowing his suffering and death is close, spends his time in prayer. He knows everything his disciples will soon encounter. As we have seen throughout the Gospel accounts, Jesus loves and cares for all people and his actions are motivated by his love. He would soon be leaving this world, but his disciples would remain in the world. They needed special prayer to help them navigate the opposition to their mission and the enormous scope of it; sharing the Good News with all the world is no easy task. Additionally, the disciples would be doing it without the presence of Jesus as they had experienced it before his death and resurrection. Jesus' prayer begins by asking the Father to "keep them in your name." At our baptism, we were claimed as God's own and were forever marked with the name, "God's child." All the baptized are claimed by Christ and belong to him. Jesus continues by saying that he has guarded and protected his flock. He asks that we be kept from the evil one and be consecrated in the truth. Jesus is the truth. To consecrate something means to set it apart for God and his divine purposes. In baptism, we were set apart by God and were anointed to follow in Christ's footsteps as priests, prophets, and kings. Jesus talks about not belonging to the world. Throughout our baptism, we belong to God. Although we live in the world, we are called to live as if we are in the kingdom of God. The choices we make throughout our day reflect our identity as God's beloved sons and daughters. We invite others into this kingdom and work to transform the world around us to better reflect God's love.

On the 3rd Sunday of every month we will have a food collection of non-perishable foods. We will alternate giving the food to food pantries at Mary Queen of Heaven & St. Athanasius. Please be as generous as possible! It comes from Matthew 25: "When I was hungry and you fed me; naked you clothed me; ill and in prison you visited me. Whenever you do this to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do it to Me" So, at St. Bernard's, it includes the giving tree, clothing drive, food drive, blood drive, operation backpack, & rehabilitating houses in Dominican Republic with St. Anthony Parish there.

Stewardship Thought

“Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.” – 1 John 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.
