Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
First Sunday of Advent

AND THEN THEY WILL SEE THE SON OF MAN

I think most people would agree that a life lived without love is an existence not a life. Equally so, if we did not have the gift of hope life would become a misery. I recall about a decade ago a woman who had been an atheist for most of her 95 years before she was received into the Church at the Easter Vigil making the statement, "to live in this world as an atheist is hell." Her point as she explained herself was that living as an atheist was ultimately to live without hope., or more starkly, to live in despair. All the love shared, the things enjoyed, the successes realized, in the end would end in perpetual annihilation. That truly is a "hell."

Two Wednesdays back I had the opportunity to have a dialogue homily with our Catholic Academy's 7th and 8th graders at Mass. We spoke about faith and the fact that some people nurture that gift in exceptional ways, others in half-hearted ways, and still others not at all. I challenged them to ask anyone who says they are atheist or agnostic what they did to lose the gift, because that is exactly the issue. Atheists are not born, they are self-made. Ignoring the life of prayer and commune with God, indifferent to Sacred Scripture, dismissive of the moral life, refusing God His due worship, maintaining unholy relationships, having a lack of will to study and learn about our faith, and living a life that is centered on the self will invariably lead to a weakening of faith and then its collapse. We are innately born to believe. We inadvertently choose by our personal choices to lose that faith. Some may object and say that there are people who have endured great personal tragedy and suffering that has caused them to lose the gift of faith and the hope that is born of it. That is understandable until we realize that others have also experienced great tragedy and suffering and have maintained and even strengthened the gift of faith. Nurturing the gift is a daily choice.

I say this by way of introduction to this Advent season because it is in this first Sunday of Advent's Gospel reading from St. Luke that we are given the reason to have hope born of faith. "They (us) will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and glory"; and our "redemption is at hand".

God in Christ, Emmanuel, God is with us, beckons us this season and every day to respond to the gift of faith. If our prayer life is strong, if we have an attentive ear to God's voice in Sacred Scripture, if we make the time to study and learn our faith, if we seek to live life in accordance with God's will and not our own desires and wants, keep holy the Sabbath by giving God His due worship, and surround ourselves with people who are serious about the journey of faith, our own faith will go stronger each day until the day of the coming of the Lord.

Dear Parishioners:

This past summer I participated in the annual Priests Biblical Conference in Wheeling, West Virginia. Present at the conference was a ministry called "Decided Excellence." The purpose of this ministry is to offer parish magazines to both practicing and non-practicing Catholics in the local community. Decided Excellence receives from the parish the names and addresses of all registered parishioners as well as those in the Catholic Academy and the School of Religion. They also scour the US Census to find those in our parish zip codes who checked off that they are Roman Catholic. Everyone Catholic household that is made known to Decided Excellence is then placed on their mailing list and will receive the magazine at the beginning of each month beginning this month of December. For this month of December 1000 Catholic households in our parish will receive the magazine. That number will increase to 1500 in January and following.

The purpose of the magazine is both evangelical and catechetical. Evangelical in that we reach out to parishioners, especially those who are not connected with the parish, to make everyone more fully aware of what is happening at St. Bernard of Clairvaux Parish. Catechetical in that the magazine will have articles by some of the nation's top scholars and teachers like Bishop Robert Barron and Dr. Scott Hahn, one the English-speaking world's most renowned Scripture scholars.

The magazine is paid for by advertising. A number of our local businesses have expressed their intention to advertise in the near future. I ask that you support their businesses since they are supporting all us at St. Bernard's and our parish ministries.

Not everyone will receive the first edition of the magazine as not everyone is registered at the parish even though they participate in the life of the parish. If after the second mailing in the first week of January to 1500 households and businesses you have not received a magazine, please contact the parish office; but please wait until after the first week of January.

I hope you will enjoy our new parish magazine. Several hundred parishes nationwide already are working with Decided Excellence for their magazines, but we are the first one in New York State with a parish in Albany beginning their magazine in January.

Please keep this endeavor in your prayers and accept my prayers that you and your families will have a very blessed Advent season.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. John Maduri
Pastor

Advent is here!

That means our GIVING TREES

are up and decorated with "ornaments" for children and families in need. The Christmas Elves have worked behind the scenes and we are so thankful to have their continued help.

Gifts need to be back by December 8th and others on December 15th. Tags are marked accordingly. Please check the back of the tag for return by date. Among the recipients of the generous gift of our parish community are Hour Children (children of incarcerate women), Mercy First (foster children), Catholic Charities, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (Deacon Ruben & Deacon Jorge), Sisters of Life (unwed/homeless pregnant women), some other organizations that have reached out to us and some neighborhood residents. Our gifts will brighten the lives of many ranging from the yet unborn and their moms through children of all ages and the adults of Mercy Home. Please feel free to purchase a gift now, at your leisure, if the timing is better for you. The sales will be starting quickly. If you choose to purchase a gift ahead of time, please just label the gift with the age and gender so we can sort them easily. Many of the requests we receive are not specific so you can get a jump on your Christmas shopping if you like! Additionally, we always receive many requests for teens especially from MERCY FIRST and HOUR CHILDREN. Gift cards are always a great idea for that age group! Please remember to bring your gift UNWRAPPED and attach the ornament from the tree to it.

Thank You!

This day, DECEMBER 3, 2024, the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, marks the beginning of the charitable season. Charities, communities, businesses and compassionate individuals all unite to give back! This day acts as a movement celebrating giving and generosity.

This is a time for all of us to think about ways to GIVE BACK & GIVE CATHOLIC!

Share your time, talent and treasure with your parish of St. Bernard in support of all of our Parish Ministries.

Please call the Parish office for additional Giving and Volunteer Opportunities.

REMEMBER - Kindness is teachable and it's contagious! THANK YOU!

Stewardship Thought

"But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand."
(Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those that are closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.
