Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Thirty Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

THE GIFT AND FREEDOM OF DETACHMENT

Archbishop Fulton Sheen once noted that just as lust is the sin of youth so greed is the sin of old age. He obviously was not speaking about everyone but was making the point that too oftentimes we can make our money and possessions the source of comfort and security. It is certainly understandable that in times of social confusion and anxiety that we seek a sense of security. That is part of our human nature and there is nothing in and of itself that is wrong with that. The question raised by the readings this Sunday is where do we place our security.

In today's first reading from the First Book of Kings we hear of the woman who has very little food and oil to feed herself and her son. They were on the verge of starvation. The last thing she needed was for Elijah to ask her for food and water. Yet that is what happens. Even after she explains her plight to him, he still requests food and water with the promise that if she would trust God, she and her son would receive much more in return. It must have been difficult for the widow to make that gift of what little she and her son had but she stepped out in faith and her trust did not leave her disappointed for "she was able to eat for a year…and her son as well. The jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry." In the Gospel reading from St. Mark, we hear the familiar incident of the poor widow whose generosity far exceeds that of the wealthy who give "from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, contributed all she had, her whole livelihood. Our Lord is not dismissing the donation of the wealthy but He makes the point that they kept plenty for themselves. Their trust in God's providence was not complete, therefore they were not truly free.

So much of what we are taught in Sacred Scripture calls for discernment. We all need a place to live. We need financial resources to eat and pay bills and enjoy the good things that God in his goodness bestows upon us. The question is do we own all these good things we have or do they own us?

The call to detachment, which is what both widows responded to, has been a cornerstone of Christian living for two millennia. This virtue is one that is three pronged in its fruitfulness. First it brings forth the fruit of inner freedom where we can let go of what we have, people, places, and things, without becoming upset or angry. The second is the fruit of gratitude where we recognize that all we have is from the heart of a good and gracious God, so be willing and able to return all when that time comes. The third fruit is peace that comes from trust in God's providential care. All of this frees us to live the authentic life that God intends us to live rather than a life that, in the words of St. John, is nothing but "chasing after the wind." The harsh reality is that no amount of money, possessions, power, or prestige will mean anything when the sorrows of life come upon us or the doctor gives us the bad news.

Those who lived a life in a spirit of detachment, who accept all they have as gift, who share what they have generously and freely, and can give it up at any moment are the most blessed people in the world. Their hearts set on God and Heaven, they have found true freedom and a peace this world cannot give nor take away.

HONORING OUR VETERANS

Our parish is once again privileged to welcome our neighborhood veterans who have served our nation so bravely and valiantly. We honor their heroic sacrifice and their risking of their lives for the sake of the freedoms we enjoy as Americans. Our nation stands tall and proud because of these men and women and we at St. Bernard of Clairvaux parish express our deepest gratitude and respect to all our veterans here in our community and throughout our nation.

Matthew 25 Ministry

Advent is just weeks away!

That means our GIVING TREE

will soon be up and decorated with "ornaments" for children and families in need. The Christmas Elves have already started their work behind the scenes and we are so thankful to have their continued help. The tree will go up on Saturday, November 29th. This year we will have some gifts that need to be back by December 8th and others on December 15th. Tags will be marked accordingly. Please check the back of the tag for return by date. Among the recipients of the generous gift of our parish community are Hour Children (children of incarcerate women), Mercy First (foster children), Catholic Charities, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (Deacon Ruben & Deacon Jorge), Sisters of Life (unwed/homeless pregnant women), some other organizations that have reached out to us and some neighborhood residents. Our gifts will brighten the lives of many ranging from the yet unborn and their moms through children of all ages and the adults of Mercy Home.Please feel free to purchase a gift now, at your leisure, if the timing is better for you. The sales will be starting quickly. If you choose to purchase a gift ahead of time, please just label the gift with the age and gender so we can sort them easily. Many of the requests we receive are not specific so you can get a jump on your Christmas shopping if you like!Additionally, we always receive many requests for teens especially from MERCY FIRST and HOUR CHILDREN. Gift cards are always a great idea for that age group! Please remember to bring your gift UNWRAPPED and attach the ornament from the tree to it. We need a volunteer (s) to drop off the gifts to Sisters of Life on or around Dec. 9th. The gifts need to be dropped off in Manhattan. An SUV or van will most likely be needed. If anyone is interested, please contact the Parish House and leave your name and number. Thank You!

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for. Thank you. Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Stewardship Thought

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living."
(Mark 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstances. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

Thanksgiving Food Blessing

If you would like an item of food from your Thanksgiving table to be blessed, please bring it to the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Thanksgiving morning.
