Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Thirty Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

THE WISE SHALL SHINE BRIGHTLY

The readings today from the Book of Deuteronomy and the Gospel of St. Mark begin quite ominously. They speak about the days of tribulation and times of distress, not particularly uplifting messages. However, they do point to a hard reality. There are in all our lives times of distress. There are also times in history when society suffers its own distresses and tribulations. Many would argue that we are in such a period presently. Our contemporary society seems to be in distress from wars and violence, addictions of every kind, the manipulation of peoples' consciences, not to mention a confusion of human identity and dignity itself. It is important to note that these times of social distress and tribulations are almost always caused by ourselves, or at least segments of society who have forgotten about God and objective truth.

In the midst of this darkness light continues to shine. The light is not something but Someone who is Jesus Christ. That light though does not shine in some ethereal way that is unnoticeable or undetectable but is clear and visible. It is us. As we read in Deuteronomy, "the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament…and shall be like the stars forever."

It is necessary to note that wisdom is not something we give to ourselves. Rather it comes from God. As the Gospel reading tells us today, God's "words will not pass away." God gives us the truths that set us free in Sacred Scripture. We have only to respond to the Word. It means responding to the word as God intends it be understood. This is where the Church comes in. Since the Church was entrusted with the Word of God (Sacred Scripture) it is the Church alone that has been given the authority to interpret the word. Otherwise, we have abominations of some who call themselves Christians using Sacred Scripture to justify racism and abortion, or the alteration of the natural law to fit certain agendas. This is where the distinction between the wise and the foolish comes in. The foolish only bring spiritual and moral death whereas the wise bring life and love as God intends it to be.

It is also necessary that no one take pride in this gift of wisdom. Again, it is a gift from God. Ours is a response through grace. The response is a willingness to hear and live the word but also to proclaim the word. The best and most effective way to make that proclamation is through a life of joy, not pleasure which is momentary, nor happiness which ebbs and flows with the circumstances of life, but a joy of knowing that God is with us. Knowing that God is with us, having the humility to listen to the Church as the Church undertakes its commission to interpret Sacred Scripture, having a humble heart and an interior peace, will allow God's light to shine in us and through us. In this way we build up God's Kingdom on earth and make ready the day of the Lord.

Matthew 25 Ministry

Advent is just weeks away!

That means our GIVING TREE will soon be up and decorated with "ornaments" for children and families in need. The Christmas Elves have already started their work behind the scenes and we are so thankful to have their continued help. The tree will go up on Saturday, November 29th. This year we will have some gifts that need to be back by December 8th and others on December 15th. Tags will be marked accordingly. Please check the back of the tag for return by date. Among the recipients of the generous gift of our parish community are Hour Children (children of incarcerate women), Mercy First (foster children), Catholic Charities, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (Deacon Ruben & Deacon Jorge), Sisters of Life (unwed/homeless pregnant women), some other organizations that have reached out to us and some neighborhood residents. Our gifts will brighten the lives of many ranging from the yet unborn and their moms through children of all ages and the adults of Mercy Home.Please feel free to purchase a gift now, at your leisure, if the timing is better for you. The sales will be starting quickly. If you choose to purchase a gift ahead of time, please just label the gift with the age and gender so we can sort them easily. Many of the requests we receive are not specific so you can get a jump on your Christmas shopping if you like!Additionally, we always receive many requests for teens especially from MERCY FIRST and HOUR CHILDREN. Gift cards are always a great idea for that age group! Please remember to bring your gift UNWRAPPED and attach the ornament from the tree to it. We need a volunteer (s) to drop off the gifts to Sisters of Life on or around Dec. 9th. The gifts need to be dropped off in Manhattan. An SUV or van will most likely be needed. If anyone is interested, please contact the Parish House and leave your name and number. Thank You!

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for. Thank you. Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Stewardship Thought

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory."
(Mark 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Thanksgiving Food Blessing

If you would like an item of food from your Thanksgiving table to be blessed, please bring it to the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Thanksgiving morning.
