Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

TO TESTIFY TO THE TRUTH

It was not all that long ago when most people acknowledged the reality of objective truth, things that bind all people of all places of all times. They are truths revealed by God in Sacred Scripture, the teachings of Christ's Church, and in nature. Even those who were not Christian lived by basic moral norms that are imprinted on the human heart formed by consciences seeking the good rather than the self. To be sure, not everyone lived this reality well. The 20th century – and now the beginning of the 21st century – are filled with wars and horrific acts of violence against human dignity by those who claim to be formed by Judeo-Christian moral principles. Like everything else, God gives us free will. Tragically, more than a few use their free will to reject the truths that once formed them.

More dangerous in our present social milieu is the widespread rejection of any objective moral truths. Everything comes down to "my truth" which is another way of saying "I want whatever I want and to live life on my own terms." The perils of this are enormous – and frightening. It was in the early mid part of the 20th century that Adolph Hitler gave the world his truth: the Jewish people were not worthy of life. Stalin gave us his truth that dialectical materialism was the way to go politically with no reference to revealed truth and six million people had to die in Russia for his truth. While these are certainly more extreme examples, there is ample evidence to show, even in day-to-day life, where a rejection of objective moral truth can lead us. If we all have our own truth then nothing is forbidden and everything is permissible.

This Sunday the Church throughout the world celebrates the Feast of Christ the King. Some might ask what the above two paragraphs have to do with this feast. Quite a bit actually. Jesus came into the world to show us, in the words of St. John the Evangelist, how to "live the truth in deed and in truth." In deed so that love is shown in action. In truth so that our decisions reflect God's will and not our desires. One of the key reasons why so few people practice the Faith is that many do not want to ascend to "the truth" about how they live their lives. Many want only their truth. The problem with this is that we can be easily deceived. Desire, spiritual and moral laziness, lust, greed, self-centeredness, etc. hold sway over our broken nature and can lead us in a direction in opposition to God's will and our human dignity. Left unchecked, in the words of Archbishop Fulton Sheen, our very nature can change and to a great extent it is already happening. We have lost sight of where we came from, who we are, and where our ultimate destiny lies.

Christ the King is the king of love and of truth. After washing the feet of His disciples, He told them to do as He had done, serve others by washing them clean of their sins, their fears, their heartaches, their doubts, their self-deceptions. He tells us that He has come to "testify to the truth" that all may know the freedom of the sons and daughters of God. There are ultimately two ways we can go. Either Christ is the King of how we love and live, or we become kings unto ourselves. History is filled with men and women, including many of the Church's saints, who tried to have it both ways. They came to recognize in wisdom that the former leads to life and the latter to spiritual and moral death.

The Feast of Christ the King calls us to make Jesus, His Gospel, and His Church, the guiding lights for how we live and love. Yet it offers another challenge. The gift that we have been given we must now share with others, patiently and with charity, and always with an eye on bringing others to the freedom of the sons and daughters of God.

Matthew 25 Ministry

Advent is just weeks away!

That means our GIVING TREE will soon be up and decorated with "ornaments" for children and families in need. The Christmas Elves have already started their work behind the scenes and we are so thankful to have their continued help. The tree will go up on Saturday, November 29th. This year we will have some gifts that need to be back by December 8th and others on December 15th. Tags will be marked accordingly. Please check the back of the tag for return by date. Among the recipients of the generous gift of our parish community are Hour Children (children of incarcerate women), Mercy First (foster children), Catholic Charities, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (Deacon Ruben & Deacon Jorge), Sisters of Life (unwed/homeless pregnant women), some other organizations that have reached out to us and some neighborhood residents. Our gifts will brighten the lives of many ranging from the yet unborn and their moms through children of all ages and the adults of Mercy Home. Please feel free to purchase a gift now, at your leisure, if the timing is better for you. The sales will be starting quickly. If you choose to purchase a gift ahead of time, please just label the gift with the age and gender so we can sort them easily. Many of the requests we receive are not specific so you can get a jump on your Christmas shopping if you like! Additionally, we always receive many requests for teens especially from MERCY FIRST and HOUR CHILDREN. Gift cards are always a great idea for that age group! Please remember to bring your gift UNWRAPPED and attach the ornament from the tree to it. Thank You!

For the Military

If you would like to add a loved one that is in active duty in the military, please call the rectory with their name and branch of service and we will add them to a list of military members to pray for. Thank you. Almighty & eternal God, protect these men & women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Stewardship Thought

"Jesus answered, 'My kingdom does not belong to this world." (JOHN 18:36)
Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building "your" kingdom here on earth? We all know we can't take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

Thanksgiving Food Blessing

If you would like an item of food from your Thanksgiving table to be blessed, please bring it to the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Thanksgiving morning.
