Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Sixth Sunday of Easter

NOT AS THE WORLD GIVES PEACE

In this Sunday's Gospel reading from St. John, our Lord makes an interesting and noteworthy statement when he speaks about giving us the gift of peace. He says "not as the world gives it." This is another example of the old expression, "the more things change the more they stay the same." In Jesus' time in human history and all through that history until today men and women have been searching for peace, both interiorly or exteriorly, especially between nations. The clarion call for peace echoes in every human heart through every generation. I remember about 40 years ago when I was in my 20s going with friends to a massive peace march in Manhattan joining over 500,000 other people from New York City and beyond. It was a great show of solidarity with the concept of peace but here we are 40 years later and we need to look no further than Ukraine and Gaza to see how ineffective that march, and others, have been. In fact, we need go no further than the streets of our cities and towns, and for that matter, no further than many homes, to see that the peace the world gives somehow always manages to fail. The failure in our Lord's time, just as in our era and the centuries in between, is that most often we see peace, at least globally, as nothing more than a forced coexistence via treaties. Resentments may still linger as it did among the Germans after the first world war. Equally so, many believe that peace can be found with just the right house or car, or just the right amount of money, fame, power, or possessions. As the forced peace on the global stage can lead to resentment, similarly, a peace forced through the material things that eventually pass away, leaves us craving for more with an appetite that is never satisfied. As our Lord elsewhere in Sacred Scripture from this Sunday's readings tells us, "Whoever eats of Me and drinks of Me will never hunger or thirst again, so too Jesus reminds us that only He only can satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart; only He can give the world the peace it cannot give – nor take away. For the Food and Drink that our Lord speaks of, and the peace He offers us, is not something, but rather His very Self. Another way to put it is to say that Jesus is our peace. He does not bestow something as a gift; He gives us Himself as Food and Drink, as peace. Peace then is not a treaty or a possession nor an escape from reality. It is a relationship. Our Lord once again is calling us into relationship as He did with the woman at the well who was constantly going there to draw water that would satisfy her physical thirst but only for a while; whereas Jesus can satisfy the thirst of her heart and soul if she would have the wisdom to take the leap of faith and enter into His life and embrace. This is the invitation our Lord holds out to us today. It is an invitation to ask the Lord to help us rid ourselves of our sins and doubts and to make that leap of faith into Him who is our peace. We do not have to wait, nor should we, until we think we are good enough or holy enough. We cannot make ourselves good or holy except by the grace of God. He invites into His peace where we are, as we are. It is that relationship and that peace which will purify us of our faults, sins, doubts, and fears. It is that peace born of love that will make of us a new creation so that we will never hunger of thirst again, so that we truly know that peace this world cannot give nor take away. If everyone took this leap of faith through Wisdom who is the Holy Spirit, not only would that peace envelop and renew us. It would flow from us into our families and homes, our communities and workplaces, our nation and our world; and though we may not be able to change the entire world we can change the world around us and the people we encounter. This is where peace begins, in the everyday of life. If everyone on our planet did that our world would know that peace this world cannot give.

WELCOME AIDAN BIRTH

Earlier this month Bishop Robert Brennan ask to me to accept a seminarian for pastoral year at St. Bernard of Clairvaux and Mary Queen of Heaven parishes. I am happy to welcome Aidan to our parish as he prepares to begin his pastoral year of ministry at our parishes beginning the first week of this coming September and ending in July 2026. As you will recall our parish hosted Fr. Samuel for pastoral year when he was a seminarian. I am sure our parishes will give a warm welcome to Aidan as Fr. Samuel received at St. Bernard's. This will be the seventh seminarian in nine years that I will have had the privilege to mentor in their discernment process. Three of them have been ordained, two others continue their studies at St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers, while one went on to service as a layman. Please keep Aidan and all of our seminarians in your prayers.
Fr. John Maduri

CHANGES AT ST. BERNARD PARISH AND ACADEMY

Along with our pastoral year seminarian and our new full-time youth and young adult minister, our parish also welcomes our present Faith Formation program director, Mrs. Melissa Wagner, as our new Academy principal. We also welcome Mrs. Kristen Lavalle, outgoing principal of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Academy in Sunset Park as our new assistant principal. Mrs. Veronica Obdyke will become director of faith formation for the 1st thru 5th grades while Ms. Katie Mossbarger, our incoming youth and young adult minister will direct the EDGE middle school ministry for our 6th, 7th, and 8th graders at the Academy and at our Faith Formation ministry. We look forward to many new and exciting things to happen with our Academy, Faith Formation ministry, and our youth and young adult ministries as we begin the new parish year in September.
Fr. John Maduri

Stewardship Thought

"…Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."
(JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.
