Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles

TO PREACH AND TEACH

One thing we know for sure about the early decades of the Church was that the Apostles and those designated by them for positions of leadership, spent their ministry preaching the Gospel and teaching the tenets of the Faith. They did not do this of their own accord but in response to our Lord's commission before His Ascension, "Go forth and baptize all nations in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; and teach them all I have commanded you." The primary roles of preaching and teaching, while shared by others, belonged to Sts. Peter and Paul whose feast day we celebrate this Sunday. St. Paul as we are aware did not know Jesus personally while our Lord was on earth. He was though certainly aware of Him. It was on the road to Damascus that Paul would meet Jesus when He spoke the words to him, "Paul, why are you persecuting Me?' It is noteworthy that our Lord did not say 'why are you persecuting the Church but rather 'me' showing forth our Lord's union with the Church. Persecution of one is persecution of the other. This will have implications for St. Peter's role as head of the Church. Paul took up the mantle by traveling far and wide, near and far, to proclaim the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the Good News. He did so at great personal cost yet he never wavered. His encounter with our Lord would not leave him indifferent. Very much to the contrary it propelled Paul to make Jesus known and loved, and to offer to those who would listen, the pathway to new and eternal life. St. Peter in being given the keys of the Kingdom by our Lord now speaks with Christ's authority. The idea of the keys may not resonate with us very readily today but in the time of Christ and prior to that a king would be known to pass the keys to his kingdom to his successor. It was understood that the new monarch had the same authority as his predecessors did. So too, the people of the kingdom would show the same respect and obedience to the new monarch. It was an unbroken line of succession. When Peter received the keys, it was understood by the Apostles that while they shared in the teaching ministry it was to Peter that belonged primacy. Such has been the case form Peter to Leo XIV. This points us to a severe problem in the Church at this time in her history. It has been properly called a crisis of ecclesiology, a non or misunderstanding of the nature of the Church. When Peter (and his successors) speak along with the Apostolic college of the eleven (and their successors the Bishops) they do not speak opinions or ideas that can be rejected. Rather, they teach us truths that are binding on our consciences. "Whoever hears you hears Me; whoever rejects you rejects Me." What you bind (teach) on earth is bound in heaven," says our Lord. Our Lord in sending the Holy Spirit into the Church tells us that the Spirit would guide the Church "into all truth." Therefore, when Peter and the Apostles (Pope and Bishops their successors) speak on faith and morals, it is Christ who is teaching. All of this said, we are not meant to be passive bystanders by any stretch of the imagination. We are also commissioned by virtue of Baptism to be preachers and teachers too. Everyone who bears the name Christian does not have a title that we can embrace or ignore at will. It comes with a responsibility, to preach the Good News of our salvation and to teach the sacred truths of our faith. This does not mean that we need to be theologians but it does mean that we should get to know our faith much more deeply, that our words and examples show forth Gospel living, that Christ is seen as truly alive in us and not just a figure from history, that we witness what it means to live in the authentic freedom and the sons and daughters of God. None of this is easy. Peter and Paul had to deal with rejection and persecution from without, dissent from within, and their own human weaknesses and faults. Nevertheless, Peter and Paul did not give up, and nor can we. The empowerment of the Holy Spirit which guided these pillars of the Church will guide us too if we open ourselves to receive the gift of the Spirit's indwelling.
Fr. John Maduri

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. RCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions. RCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Stewardship Thought

"I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." (2 TIMOTHY 4:7)

How many of us can say this? St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, he calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? If you Take one minute each day to remind yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose.

We will be selling Our Lady of Mount Carmel Candles that you can memorialize, raffle tickets & 50/50 boxes right outside the church from 5:00pm-10:00pm through Thursday, July 24th through Sunday, July 27th

If you are able to volunteer to sell at our table please contact Sandra at the rectory 718.763.5533 or return the form below to the rectory.
