Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
The Most Holy Trinity

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

This past Sunday the Church throughout the world celebrated the great feast of Pentecost, that day when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and the early Church and gifted them with a powerful faith that nothing, not even death, could conquer. With this gift of faith came the awareness that the gift they had received must now be shared: "Baptize all people in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; and teach them all I have commanded you." At Pentecost that commission became clear and the task at hand commenced. It is noteworthy that on this Sunday's feast of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit also figures prominently. The Sacred Scriptures are clear in telling us that the Spirit does not only proceed from the Father and the Son but is a part of the Trinity. To use St. John Paul II's analogy, the Father and the Son share a love that is so total that their love bears the fruit which is the Holy Spirit. He used this imagery particularly in relationship to marriage where the love of husband and wife, total and faithful, bears the fruit of their love which is their children. While it is difficult to fully comprehend the concept of three Persons in One Godhead, something that scandalizes non-Christians, nevertheless our Lord Himself tells us that He and the Father are One; that the Spirit comes forth from them into the Church and the hearts of believers. It is because our love is not complete and is oftentimes self-seeking and emotionally erratic, that we cannot fathom this totality of perfect love that is the Triune God. Rather than trying to have a theological knowledge or enter into a philosophical enterprise trying to explain the Trinity (perhaps the best is St. Patrick's imagery of the three-leaf clover; three clovers but one flower), we should look at what it means to live a trinitarian life. In other words, we need to ask ourselves how well do we love; how deep is our love not just for those we know but for those whom we do not know but are still members of the household of faith; those who are also sons and daughters of God who is everyone without distinction. The trinitarian love relationship between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit need not be fully understood but should more importantly it should serve as a guide for how we live. As we recently celebrated Mothers' Day and today celebrate Fathers' Day, it is a good time for parents to recommit themselves to strengthening the bonds of love between themselves and their children with the Triune God more consciously as the center of their lives. Our society has spent the better part of 50 years trying to disparage the role of fatherhood. All true fatherhood comes from God the Father. To disparage fatherhood is to at least inadvertently disparage God Himself whom Jesus revealed to us as "our Father." The best way for fathers to show forth their essential role in the life of the family is to love as God the Father loves with a total gift of Himself to us His people. If every father gave himself to that same self-donating love and sacrifice, (and millions do every day), it would lay bare the lie that fathers are unnecessary. Some natural fathers have failed and so have spiritual fathers, sometimes in grievous ways. However, God the Father never fails because love is His essence. As the great St. Therese of Lisieux once said, "In the heart of the Church, my mother, I will be love." Every father and for that matter every mother, every Christian, is called this day of the feast of the Holy Trinity, to strive by God's grace to be like God Himself, love.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. RCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions. RCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.
Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Summer Rosary

We are happy to announce that we will once again be reciting the Rosary on Tuesday evenings in our Parish Gardens starting July 8, 2025 at 6:00 PM. Please enter through the Gardens' gate on East 69th Street. There will be NO ENTRANCE through the Rectory. If there is RAIN OR THREAT OF RAIN, the recitation WILL BE IN CHURCH. Now, more than ever we need to come together in prayer and reach out to Our Blessed Mother with hope. If you have questions, you can contact Rita at 917-698-5506.

Stewardship Thought

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13)
It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

Corpus Christi Procession

The Feast of Corpus Christi is June 21st & 22nd. Because of the lack of police availability that day, we will not have a procession with Mary Queen of Heaven this year. Instead, after the 11:30 Mass, we will process around the block and have Eucharistic adoration until 2:00pm.

Active Parish Campaign Summary

Annual Appeal Goal for 2025:
$51,902.

We need to raise $31,868 more to reach our assigned goal.

To Date we have 62 Donors!
There are 1,000 families registered in our Parish – imagine if every family gave something! If each family gave $100 that would mean $100,000! That would make us reach our goal which supports the Ministries and Programs of the Diocese and we would have the remaining amount returned to our parish for our Ministries and Programs.
Of course, no gift is too large or too small!
Give WHAT YOU CAN When you can!
If you have already made your pledge – Thank you!
If you have not - Please support the
