Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Pentecost Sunday

YOU WILL RECEIVE POWER

There are any number of ways that we can define power. Some do so as the ability to control or master others; others as manipulation to get one's way; still others as something wielded arbitrarily based on the wants and desires of the one with power; while others see power correctly as an authority at the service of truth. In fact, authority when used correctly is true power. It is why we speak of the Church's teaching authority not the Church's teaching power. The power of the Church to speak authoritatively comes from its service to truth. Power separated from truth is neither power nor authority. It is a pathway to all kinds of evil. Our 20th century, and now 21st century, are littered with people who have wielded power only at the service of the self. The result has been affliction and suffering for millions. The Sacred Scriptures from today's feast of Pentecost remind us that we "will receive power". How else can we explain bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Christ? How else can we explain miraculous cures of disease or the raising of the dead which still occur? How else can we explain a hardened atheist who finds God in unexpected places? How else can we explain the conversion of hardened sinners? How else can we explain tepid men and women becoming martyrs for the faith? How else can we explain the resurrection of the dead? These miracles of love and grace come forth every day by one reality: the power of the Holy Spirit which men and women have received. This power is not about self-interest; nor is about fame, glory, manipulation or controlling others. It is about the unleashing of love and faith; not a love based on feelings or emotions or what we can get for ourselves in a relationship. It is a love that sees God everywhere and in everyone. It is a love that sees every person without distinction as another Christ, another incarnation of the living God. It is also about faith for it is faith that allows us the ability to recognize God's presence all around us. It is that same faith that empowers us to work miracles. Perhaps not miracles in the way we normally think of them, but the miracle of being able to bring others to Christ and Christ to them, the miracle of being able to soften the hardened heart, the miracle of bringing reconciliation and Good News to those in despair, the miracle of feeding others with the Gospel even though they do not even know they are starving. This power is not something but Someone who is the Holy Spirit. Two things are necessary to receive this gift. The most obvious one is to ask for the gift sincerely expecting God to send forth the Spirit to work wonders in us and through us. The second is to seek ongoing conversion of life. The Holy Spirit can only enter us to the extent that we are purified of our sins. The reason why so relatively few people experience the power of the Holy Spirit is that we do not ask and we do not make serious efforts to amend our lives of our sins. The Lord has made us a great promise. "You will receive power." Not you might but you will. We have only to look at the example of the Apostles who with the faithful women gathered quietly in prayer waiting for the promised gift of the Spirit, and like them to accept the gift of the Holy Spirit's empowering that enable us to build up the Kingdom of God in our midst.
Fr. John Maduri

Stewardship Thought

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your mind, heart, and soul affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

Corpus Christi Procession

On Saturday, June 21st, we will celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi (Body & Blood of Christ) with a procession with Mary Queen of Heaven. After our 11:30am Mass, you can go to Mary Queen of Heaven, then we will process to St. Bernard's for Eucharistic Adoration. Let's show our faith to the neighborhood.
