Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FATHER IS PLEASED TO GIVE YOU THE KINGDOM

When we think of the Kingdom of God some may make the mistake of thinking of it as a physical place. However, that is not how Sacred Scriptures understands the term. The Kingdom of God refers to a spiritual reality where God's will is done and a people of faith are transformed and become of new creation. Ultimately it is about a relationship. A people in darkness now live in the light of God's truth, mercy and love. Elsewhere in Scripture, not in this Sunday's readings, our Lord tells us not to go looking for the Kingdom as if were something to be pointed to: "look here it is or look there it is. The Kingdom of God is within (us)," Luke 17:21. Our Lord is reminding us that the Kingdom of God which dwells within us is a gift. We hear in the Gospel today that "the Father is pleased to give (us) the kingdom. We do not have to go searching for. We need only recognize the presence of God in our midst. We also cannot look at these Scriptures without acknowledging that a great many people have rarely or never grasped the reality of the gift. Many acknowledge themselves agnostic, atheist or seeker with no real conviction about God. The reasons for this situation are multiple. For some there is a desire to not find God because there is an intuitive sense that once we know God, and know we are known by God, it will change how we live. For instance, the prominent atheist, the late Christopher Hitchens, once commented that he saw religious belief as getting in the way of peoples' ability to explore their sexual desires. How much of his atheism (which was softening over time) is a true desire to know the truth or a desire to remain in ignorance since God does put, for our benefit, boundaries on how we should live? Others are so immersed in various sins of omission or commission that there is little room for God to break in. Though he can at any moment he also respects our freedom. Then there are those who struggle with doubt. As we turn to the second reading from the letter to the Hebrews we read and hear about all the things that Abraham accomplished 'BY FAITH." This is the key to Abraham's fruitfulness, his attentiveness to the voice of God, his conviction that God's promises would not leave him disappointed even if he and many of his descendants would "greet" the promise from "afar." Faith then by its very nature requires a sincere desire to know the truth about God and who God is. To allude to this Sunday's Gospel from St. Luke, we need to prepare ourselves for the times when God does try to break into our lives. We are called to develop the interior life of inner solitude and silence where God speaks. We also need that attentive ear of the heart to hear the voice of God in others, and an eye that can see beyond what is visible. In the Gospel we read about those who are not prepared for the day of the Lord's visitation. They in fact lose out. The beating that our Lord speaks about in the Gospel can be seen as much deeper than a physical beating where someone is hurt and injured. We hurt and injure ourselves, our dignity as sons and daughters of God, the peace of knowing God's love, when we are not prepared to receive the gift Conversely, our Lord says that much will be required of those who have been give much. This may sound off-putting to some until we look again at Abraham. Much was demanded of him but much was given to him. He became the father of many nations. The gift given he now shared. Faith then is not a private affair but one that does ask us to go out of ourselves to bring Good News to others. Like Abraham we do this, "by faith;" a faith that is nourished by prayer, trust, faithfulness, charity, justice and a sincere desire to know God so that we may in turn know the freedom of the children of God.

Music Ministry Notes

Have you ever wanted to join our Choir but did not have the time? Now is your chance!
Consider joining our Summer Choir which will sing at the 11am Sunday Mass throughout the Summer. We will rehearse every Sunday 20 minutes before the 11am Mass. This is a great opportunity to serve our Parish with your time and talent during the slower summer months.
If interested, please see our Director of Music Ernest Buckley after Mass or call: 718.809.7666.

Offertory Procession

If you or your family has an announced Mass intention for a loved one and you would like to bring up the Communion gifts PLEASE see one of the ushers before Mass begins. Thank you!

OCIA
Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. OCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions. OCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Summer Rosary

We are happy to announce that we have once again begun reciting the Rosary on Tuesday evenings in our Parish Gardens starting 6:00 PM. Please enter through the Gardens' gate on East 69th Street. There will be NO ENTRANCE through the Rectory. If there is RAIN OR THREAT OF RAIN, the recitation WILL BE IN CHURCH. Now, more than ever we need to come together in prayer and reach out to Our Blessed Mother with hope. We ask her to intercede with her Son and we implore her maternal care for all of her children.
ALL ARE WELCOME!

Stewardship Thought

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." LUKE 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.
