Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word
Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE NARROW GATE

Our Lord at times makes entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven seem more difficult than many of us would like it to be. This past Tuesday Jesus told us that it is easier for a camel to "pass through the eye of a needle" than for someone who is rich to enter the Kingdom of God. It is not money or possessions themselves that are the issue. The problem is when we become so attached to them that acquiring them overwhelms our lives and we forget about God and what is truly important. Similarly, in this Sunday's Gospel from St. Luke our Lord tells us in stark language that just because we say we believe in Him does not suffice for entrance into the Kingdom. We must enter through the "narrow gate" of a lived faith. This statement can be taken in conjunction with a similar statement that our Lord makes elsewhere in Scripture when he tells us that many try to enter the Kingdom through the wide road rather than the narrow road. He also teaches us that the wide road leads to destruction whereas the narrow road leads to life. The wide road is the road of self-interest in whatever form that may take; whereas the narrow road or gate is the way of the Cross which leads to life. It is a great irony that while the wide road looks attractive it is the narrow one that will bring us to God and to life. In still another Scripture passage, again not from this weekend but equally relevant, our Lord tells us that those who strive to save their lives will lose them while those who lose their lives for His sake and that of the Gospel will find their lives. Notice again the irony. Many tend to think that living life of their own terms will guarantee them all the security and pleasures that they seek wherein the opposite is true. Living our lives for Christ and the Gospel is the narrow gate that leads to life. The narrow gate can be seen not so much as something but as Someone. Jesus is the narrow gate who leads to life because He is life itself. St. Augustine, in what is perhaps his most famous statement made after he lived on the wide road, is as important today as it was then. He states, "we are made for you alone, O Lord, and our hears are restless until they rest in you." Note the first part of that statement, "we are made for you alone, O Lord." In other words, when we try to live apart from God, we miss the mark on who we are and thereupon we become confused and dazzled by that wide road that in the end does not ever satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart. The Gospel today is an invitation to wisdom. Many, like Augustine, have travelled the wide road only to find it frustrating and full of empty promises. Wise men and women seek the narrow gate who is Jesus for He alone is the Way, the Truth and the Life.
Fr. John Maduri

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.) is a process by which a person prepares to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The process is one of inquiry, evangelization, prayer, study and conversion, leading to one's entrance into the church through Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. OCIA welcomes the unbaptized as well as those baptized in other Christian traditions. OCIA also welcomes those who have been baptized Catholic but who have not completed their sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. Anyone who is interested in participating in this program is asked to call the Rectory now and speak to Deacon Frank.

Music Ministry Notes

Have you ever wanted to join our Choir but did not have the time? Now is your chance! Consider joining our Summer Choir which will sing at the 11am Sunday Mass throughout the Summer. We will rehearse every Sunday 20 minutes before the 11am Mass. This is a great opportunity to serve our Parish with your time and talent during the slower summer months. If interested, please see our Director of Music Ernest Buckley after Mass or call: 718.809.7666.

Summer Rosary

We have been reciting the Rosary on Tuesday evenings in our Parish Gardens starting 6:00 PM. THE LAST ATE FOR SUMMER ROSARY WILL BE THIS COMING TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 2025.
Please enter through the Gardens' gate on East 69th Street. There will be NO ENTRANCE through the Rectory. If there is RAIN OR THREAT OF RAIN, the recitation WILL BE IN CHURCH. ALL ARE WELCOME!
Continue to Pray the Rosary Each Day!
Now, more than ever we need to come together in prayer and reach out to Our Blessed Mother with hope. We ask her to intercede with her Son and we implore her maternal care for all of her children.

Stewardship Thought

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." LUKE 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "What have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?
