Stewardship Thought

"For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil."

1 PETER 3:17

The old line says "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don't get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times, we may respond negatively and ask, "Why me? I did everything right!" Here's the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured; God has a better plan in store for you.

I WILL COME TO YOU AND REVEAL MYSELF

These words found in this Sunday's Gospel reading from St. John are words that fill our hearts with great hope and joy. Our Lord is reminding us that He desires not to be hidden from us but rather that He desires to be present to us, to live among us, to walk with us. I well remember my late spiritual director, Fr. Gene Fulton, saying to me "Christ is with you" reminding me that I – and we – are never really alone. Those words, if embraced in faith and confidence, would transform our lives. Rather than a Savior on the pages of history books our Lord is a Companion on the journey. We only need to invite Him in. We can understandably raise the question, 'if it is true that the Lord comes to us and reveals Himself to us, then why do so many not believe in God; at the very least have no regular and conscious awareness of His presence?' The answer is multiple. As noted above, we have to invite our Lord into our lives. As I have said and written many times our Lord does not intrude but awaits our invitation. Not just our words but our lives must reflect that desire for the Lord to walk with us every day. This brings us to another obstacle – sin. One who loves God does not sin egregiously. When we do fall into sin – be it of omission of commission – and remain unrepentant or seek self-justification, our invitation is muddied. As we read in today's second reading from the first letter of St. Peter, we must also approach the Lord with reverence and a clear conscience. Reverence allows us to approach our Lord with awe and wonder at the majesty of His love and life-giving truths. A clear conscience is one formed by those truths. Finally, and as an umbrella over all of this, is seeking the Holy Spirit. Notice how all of this presupposes one essential thing. The seeker of the Lord who wants the Lord in his or her life, who desires to enjoy the revelation of the Lord, must do this with sincerity of heart. Our entire being is called to be oriented toward God so that in Jesus' revelation of Himself and through Him the Father, we can begin, as best we can in this life, to enter into the mystery and the love of God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Fr. John Maduri

Happy Mother's Day

On behalf of the priests, deacons, Sisters, and staff of our parishes I extend our heartfelt blessings to all of our mothers as you celebrate your special day. We give thanks to God for the gift of our mothers as they continue to love, nurture, heal, care for us, and support us as only mothers can do. For all of our mothers who have passed on we ask the Lord to look lovingly upon them and to grant them the reward of their goodness and love. We especially invoke our Blessed Mother Mary and ask her to pray for all of our mothers, living and deceased, that they may one day have a place at the banquet feast of heaven.
Happy Mother's Day.
Fr. John Maduri

LIVING ROSARY

On Wednesday, May 13, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, a celebration of the Living Rosary will be held at Mary queen of Heaven Church. I have offered the prayer of this Rosary at other parishes where I have served and I believe the parishioners of MQH would find this a peaceful and prayerful time with our Lord and our Lady. The Living Rosary is a candlelight rosary where participants ring the church with candles (batter operated for safety), blue for the Hail Marys, white for the Our Fathers, and red for the Glory Be. At the end of the service the church is ringed with a lighted rosary prayed and held by those participating. We will need 53 parishioners for the Hail Mary, 6 for Our Father, and 5 for the Glory Be. I will be approaching the various ministries at MQH to invite them to take a decade. Individuals who would like to participate are encouraged to do so. Others can pray from the pews if they are not comfortable with public speaking. The Living Rosary will begin at 8:00 pm so that it can be reasonably dark. At the Conclusion we will have fellowship with refreshments outdoors, behind the church, weather permitting. A sign-up sheet will be available, or you may call the MQH Rectory Office to indicate your interest in participating. On the night of the Living Rosary, I will assign participants their prayer.
Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. John Maduri, Pastor
