Stewardship Thought

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

MATTHEW 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

JESUS SENT OUT THE TWELVE

This Sunday's Gospel from St. Matthew finds our Lord doing two things with his disciples. First, He summons them and then He sends them forth with His instructions. Everyone of us has also been summoned by the Lord by virtue of Baptism. We too have been commissioned by the Lord to go forth with His instructions. We can too easily forget that we are not here by chance but that the Lord has in fact called us and called us by name. At our Baptism that is exactly what happened. We were called and baptized by name. This is a free, unearned gift from God that makes us His children and establishes us as members of His Body the Church. Yet this call and gift – and yes, dignity – comes with a responsibility. That responsibility is to first live the Gospel ourselves and then to go forth and proclaim it. The instructions Jesus gives us are the same as He gave His disciples: to go forth and teach those we encounter all that the Lord teaches us through Sacred Scripture and the Church. This we do by word and in deed. To be called by name is to be known. We are known by a God who calls us His sons and daughters and who invites us to participate in His work of salvation. To enter into that mission is to find our purpose and the meaning of a life well lived.

Perform a Random Act of Kindness

Consider spending time at a senior home to bring a thoughtful surprise to the residents. This gesture doesn't need to involve money; many seniors often feel isolated due to family living far away or having no relatives at all. Simply visiting them to share a meal, read a book, or engage in conversation can make a significant difference.
Our elders possess rich histories and fascinating stories that offer invaluable insights into life, far beyond what any history book can provide.

MASS INTENTIONS, MEMORIAL MASSES & ALTAR GIFTS

Please stop by the Rectory Office during office hours to schedule your Mass Intentions, Memorial Masses & Altar Gifts. Also remember our Saints' Shrines and Votive Candle Offerings in church.
