Stewardship Thought

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father."
MATTHEW 10:32

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

EVERYONE WHO ACKNOWLEDGES ME BEFORE OTHERS

Our society in the past 50 Years or so has done a great job of telling Christians and people of other faiths to keep our religion in our sanctuaries. I wrote sometime back about a prominent politician who likes to say that our constitution respects "freedom of worship" when our constitution respects freedom of religion. Verbally the difference sounds minor. In reality the difference is significant. Freedom of worship does in fact isolate the faith to the sanctuaries of our churches, synagogues, and mosques. Freedom of religion allows us to live that fact publicly and to engage society based on those religious convictions. This Sunday's Gospel from St. Matthew once again finds Jesus calling us to be not just hearers of the Word but proclaimers and witnesses of the Word. Our Lord is even more explicit in that he tells us plainly that some degree of rejection or persecution may be the result of this proclamation but that we "should not be afraid of those who can kill the body, but cannot kill the soul." He goes on to tell us how intimately we are known by God, "so do not be afraid." He then goes on to offer both a promise and a warning. To those who acknowledge Him in word and proclamation He will acknowledge before the Father. To those who deny Him before others, He will deny before the Father. We can perhaps ask ourselves whether or not our Lord understands how difficult this witnessing and proclaiming of the Gospel can be. The answer to this is simple. Our Lord does understand fully. He understood it right up to the shedding of His Blood on Calvary. What Jesus had was a trust in the Father so that He was not afraid when that moment of total self-surrendered occurred. He invites us to the same. If we have trust in the Father and the Christ whom He sent into the world, we will not be afraid of the difficulties that may come with the proclamation and witnessing to the Gospel. Most of us have heard that the two things that should never be discussed at table are politics and religion. This is certainly true of those who are closed minded and ideological. For those who have the human maturity to listen to others, to learn a different perspective or perhaps something new, those conversations can be enriching. The one thing we cannot do – and should not do – is remain silent when our Lord, His Gospel, and His Church are unjustly criticized or vilified. This makes us accessories. Even worse, we are guilty of keeping people in ignorance which robs them of the full life everyone can find in Christ and all that He bestows upon us through the Sacred Scriptures and the Church. Everything, of course, is in the approach. If we are self-righteous and judgmental no one will listen to us. If we have our Lord's compassion and respectful way of speaking, we can bring our Lord and the Good News in a way that is inviting. This is not easy to be sure. We need the guidance of the Holy Spirit to make prudent decisions about when and how to speak; but speak we must, but always in love. If we think this call that our Lord extends to us is overwhelming at times, especially in an environment when so many do not want to hear the truth, we need only keep in mind the words of the prophet Jeremiah in today's first reading, "but the Lord is with me, like a mighty champion." It is also imperative that we continue to be with one another for mutual support as we strive by God's grace, to make Jesus Christ known and loved, His Gospel the life-giving way of life it is meant to be, and the Church as the gift that gives everyone all that we need for the nourishment of our faith as we make our way to the Kingdom.

Fr. John Maduri

Dear Parishioners:

On behalf of the priests, deacons, Sisters, and staff of Mary Queen of Heaven and St. Bernard of Clairvaux parishes, I extend our prayers and best wishes to all of our fathers as we celebrate Fathers' Day. Being a father has never been easy, especially when there are those who denigrate the importance and role of fathers in the home. As parish leaders, we know the many sacrifices that countless men make everyday to support their wives and children in the myriad ways fathers do this. You have our support and respect for your essential role in the life of the family. We encourage our fathers to see in St. Joseph the role model of all fatherhood, silent yet strong, hard-working, courageous, and always present to Mary and the Christ.

Have a very blessed day on this your special day.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. John Maduri

Of course, no gift is too large or too small!

Give WHAT YOU CAN When you can!

If you have already made your pledge – Thank you!

Operation Backpack

OPERATION BACK PACK

Hosted by Matthew 25

Think it's too early to think about back-to-school? Not for Operation Backpack! Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.

Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.

We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.

Won't you please consider donating a new backpack?

We will not be collecting school supplies ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.
