Stewardship Thought

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field…He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom."
- MATTHEW 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all "good seeds". We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

GOD'S PATIENCE

It is a fortunate thing for us that our Lord is much more patient with us than were the slaves of the household owner in this Sunday's parable. It is also fortunate for us that our Lord's patience with us is greater than people in general or even with ourselves. In the Gospel reading this Sunday, we are given the parable of the weeds and the wheat. It is not uncommon that Christians at times wonder why our Lord allows evil to exist alongside good, sin alongside virtue. We may tend to think that if our Lord rids the world of evil and sin, then all would be well. In reality, it would not go well with any of us since we are all sinners in one way or another, to one degree or another. To ask God to rid the world of sin is to ask God to get rid of all of us. It takes humility and honesty to accept this fact, yet it is the reality of the human condition. Some may recall a conversation I brought up when I first arrived at St. Bernard, where I mentioned in one of my homilies a woman I had met in a previous parish who, reflecting on the various apparitions of our Lady, noted the dire warnings associated with some of the messages, some of which foretold significant suffering coming upon the world. Her comment was quite stunning when she said, "I can't wait." She obviously saw herself as perfect in every way and had no interest in working for the conversion of sinners. Just do what the slaves wanted to do. Throw them out. Jesus approaches things in a dramatically different way. "Let them grow together." Our Lord is not in any way condoning evil and sin. Rather, He is showing patience. Perhaps those who do evil and teach others to do the same will repent and find new life in Christ and salvation. After all, our Lord's entire ministry was the ministry of reconciliation. We as Christians can do no less than to do what Jesus did: preach the Gospel and the fullness of truth and pray in hope that conversion of life will happen. This can go against the worst parts of our human nature that may want to see others punished for the sins and evil they commit; yet our Lord's patience, as Sacred Scripture tells us, is not permissiveness but directed towards our salvation. As with so much of Sacred Scripture, when there is a warning, there is also a message of hope. Where there is a message of hope, there is also a message of warning. It is the latter that we note in this Sunday's Gospel reading. Our Lord's patience is not unlimited towards those who are obstinate. He makes it very clear that those who do evil and "cause others to sin" will be "thrown into the fiery furnace." We all need to take stock of ourselves and ask ourselves what witness we are giving to others. Do our choices, attitudes, or lifestyles cause others to sin? What of those who cause children to embrace sin by encouraging that which is contrary to the Gospel? The Gospel reading today also reminds us that the Kingdom of God is not stagnant. It is meant to grow and expand. Sin and evil are the obstacles to this being realized fully. This is why our Lord continually invites sinners to repentance and conversion, why He patiently nudges us along the road of truth, charity, and justice. It is why He calls us to embrace the new life He offers us at every moment, so that experiencing the freedom of the sons and daughters of God, we may be participants in the work of building up the Kingdom of God in our midst.
Fr. John Maduri

Dear Parishioners:

On behalf of the clergy, Religious, and faithful of Mary Queen of Heaven-St. Bernard of Clarivaux parish, I extend much gratitude to Aidan Birth as he leaves our parish to continue his final two years of study at St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers and prepares for ordination to the priesthood in June 2028. Aidan has been a blessing to our parish, diligently engaging parishioners of all ages and the ministries at both MQH and SBC. He has done so willingly, generously, and joyfully. Along the way, he has shown us what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. His greatest achievement was organizing the parish mission which was a resounding success thanks to his prayerfulness, hard work, dedication and organizational skills, attributes that will serve him well as a priest, and especially one day as a pastor. The priests of the parish enjoyed his company and his wisdom that he generously shared with us during the year. We were fortunate to have Aidan with us this past year and extend many prayers that God continue to guide him as he continues his journey to ordained ministry as a priest of Jesus Christ.

OPERATION BACK PACK

Operation Backpack

Hosted by Matthew 25

Think it's too early to think about back-to-school? Not for Operation Backpack! Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.

Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.

We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.

Won't you please consider donating a new backpack? We will not be collecting school supplies

ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.
