Stewardship Thought

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." -

MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

REJOICE HEARTILY…SHOUT FOR JOY

For many people those words may sound overly optimistic. Many will say that there is little to rejoice in or be joyful about when individuals find themselves in all sorts of struggles and society itself teeters from politics to its social fabric that seem more divided and confused than ever. While this is the perception of many people – and possibly the reality – the words of Sacred Scripture stand as so much of Sacred Scripture does, as a contradiction to how we understand things. From a purely human and natural point of view there may in fact be good reasons to not rejoice or shout for joy. However, as always, the Word of God calls us to something deeper than what we can grasp on the surface. This something deeper is a call to understand what true rejoicing is really all about. The second reading from St. Paul finds Paul reminding us that the Spirit dwells IN us. Notice that we do not rejoice with the Lord only as a companion who rejoices with a friend; nor do we rejoice only because of the good things God has done for us. The something deeper is union with God. The implication of this union is quite clear. If we are in a relationship with God; if we seek that union with God that marked the lives of the saints, then we can rejoice no matter what this life may throw at us. The secret, if you will, to all true joy is knowing God intimately. It is the Spirit of God dwelling in us who raises us to new life. It is this indwelling that gives us hope in sorrow, light in darkness, life in death. Therefore "rejoice heartily" and "shout for joy." There are of course many people, as alluded to above, who have lost any sense of joy. They settle for pleasure which is momentary in the schema of things; or happiness which easily ebbs and flows depending on the situations we find ourselves in or our particular mood at the moment. Joy comes when we step out in faith and allow the Lord to dwell "in" us and not just about us. There is an immense difference between the two. Allowing the Lord to dwell about us keeps the Lord at a comfortable distance. We know He is there but not too close. To allow the Lord to dwell in us is to invite God into the very fabric of our being. The word 'allow' is used purposely. As you have heard me say or seen in writing, God does not push Himself into our lives. We invite Him in and to that extent can he dwell with us; to that extent can we rejoice and shout for joy in the Lord.

The Sacred Scriptures once again remind us that God has done His part. He has revealed Himself in Christ through the Spirit. He invites us to allow Him to dwell us and us in Him. As we hear and read the Word of God this 14th Sunday of ordinary time, God is a Savior who reveals Himself to us, brings "peace to the nations" and "gives life to our mortal bodies." These are the gifts God gives to those who seek Him with a sincere heart. From these gifts come every reason to "rejoice heartily" and to "shout for joy."

Fr. John Maduri

Active Parish Campaign Summary

Annual Appeal Goal for 2026: $46,712.

We need to raise $20,000 more to reach our assigned goal.

To Date we have 70 Donors!

There are 1,000 families registered in our Parish – imagine if every family gave something! If each family gave $100 that would mean $100,000! That would make us reach our goal which supports the Ministries and Programs of the Diocese and we would have the remaining amount returned to our parish for our Ministries and Programs.

Of course, no gift is too large or too small!

Operation Backpack

Hosted by Matthew 25

Think it's too early to think about back-to-school?

Not for Operation Backpack!

Thousands of school-age children in New York City are homeless and one of the most devastating consequences of homelessness is the impact it can have on a child's education. Frequent school transfers and the stigma associated with living in a shelter add up to great hardship for these children.

Saint Bernard Parish will be participating this year to help thousands of homeless children on their first day of classes.

We will have a collection box in the vestibule of the Church in the coming weeks.

Won't you please consider donating a new backpack?

We will not be collecting school supplies ONLY BACKPACKS

We will be collecting through the end of July.

Scheduled for the fourth Sunday of each month at 12:30 p.m. Parents are required to schedule an appointment with a Priest or Deacon at least six weeks prior to Baptism.

Marriages
Arrangements must be made with a Priest or Deacon at least 6 months before the wedding.
Pre-Cana information can be found at www.pre-cana.org.

Sick Calls
Please call the Rectory to arrange a Communion call to the sick or elderly, or a pastoral visit to a hospitalized loved one.

Vocations
Anyone seeking information regarding the Priesthood, Permanent Deaconate, Religious Life or to serve in our Parish as a Lay Minister should speak to Fr. Maduri, Fr. Mike, Dcn. Frank, Dcn. Chris or Dcn. Herb.

Parish Membership
All new families are welcome to the Parish and encouraged to become actively involved in parish societies and activities. New parishioners should register at the Rectory as soon as possible. Parishioners are asked to use the weekly envelopes in making their contributions.

Catholics Come Home
Please feel free to invite those who have been away from our parish to attend Mass with you. If there is anyone you know of that is upset with the church and feels that my speaking to them would be of help, please let me know so that I may speak with them. Fr. Maduri.

Consider Leaving a Legacy of Faith
Remember Our Parish in Your Will
When you next update your estate plans, please consider continuing your lifelong stewardship by leaving a bequest to St. Bernard. For more information please see Fr. Maduri.
