Stewardship Thought

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel…"

- EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, many of us are not generous in proportion to the gifts we have been given. How often do we give at the minimum level required? Remember, the Lord calls us to nurture and develop our gifts and to give back with increase. He calls us to be generous with all the gifts, especially the one that means the most to us.

INVITATION VS. CONDEMNATION

There are vast numbers of people who look around at the world and wonder if it is not ready to implode. The extraordinary amount of division, be it among nations or among people, seems to be everywhere. Violence, immorality, addictions, selfishness, a growing lack of respect for the dignity of the human person seem to pervade so much of what we see and hear. There are two ways we can respond to this state of affairs. One of them is condemnation; the other is invitation. Condemnation can unfortunately come too easy to too many. It is understandable but never correct. This is not giving a free reign to sin and evil. Rather it is acknowledging that most often people who embrace sin and evil do not know the truth or what they are doing. If we look at the life of the prophet Jonah, he was one who was growing impatient with the people of Nineveh. A city of approximately 120,000 people, it was quite large for its time and also quite a pagan paradise. While Jonah wanted its destruction the Lord God reminds Jonah that the people there "do not know their left hand from their right hand." God in no way justifies their paganism but God also acknowledges their ignorance. Therefore, Jonah, preach the goodness of God and His ways but do not be too quick to condemn. Eventually the people of Nineveh did repent and a new life was born for them and their city as they honored the mercy God had shown them. In both the first reading from Isaiah and the Gospel from St. Matthew this Sunday we see the Lord calling us to a different approach from Jonah and the worst of our human tendencies. In Isaiah God calls us to bring back the sinner from his or her ways. Only then will they lose everything if they refuse, but first the invitation must be made. In Matthew's Gospel we are called to point out the sins that others' may be doing, but only after we have first looked at ourselves, and only so that they can find the new life in Christ. Again, if those who embrace sin and evil continue in their ways, they have sealed their own faith. Our work is to proclaim the Good News of God's truth, love, and mercy. There are at least two reasons why condemnation come so easily to too many. It comes from a lack of self-reflection and humility to recognize that we not perfect ourselves. It is also easy. We can just sit back and point out everyone else's faults, errors, and sins. To extend the invitation to a new life in Christ will cost us. We have to be willing to confront people in love, seeking their salvation, spending time getting to know those who have abandoned God either explicitly or implicitly. All of this takes time and patience. Yet God gives each of us all the time we need to repent and has great patience with us in our weaknesses and sins. He continually invites us back to Himself. Can we do any less to others who "do not know their left hand from their right hand?"

FAITH FORMATION IS A JOURNEY-NOT JUST A SACRAMENT YEAR

Your child wouldn't attend 2nd grade and then return to school in 9th grade expecting to be ready for high school. Faith formation works the same way.

Faith grows through ongoing formation, prayer, community, and a deeper relationship with Jesus.

 FAITH BEGINS-KINDERGARTEN

* FIRST COMMUNION-GRADES 1&2 Two-year preparation A special milestone in our faith journey, as children grow in their love for Jesus and prepare to receive Him in the Eucharist.

* GROWING IN FAITH-GRADES 3-5 Continue growing in a relationship with Jesus through: Prayer, Scripture, The Mass, Catholic teachings, Faith-filled friendships and community

* CONFIRMATION-GRADES 6&7 Two-year preparation. EDGE's curriculum is based on the Catechism of the Catholic Church and uses engaging activities, small-group discussions, and opportunities for reflection to immerse students in the Gospel. Students develop a deeper understanding of the Holy Spirit, their Catholic faith, and God's will for their lives.

ALL GRADES K-7 • EVERY YEAR GROWING IN FAITH

Faith formation doesn't end after receiving a sacrament. It is a lifelong journey of growing closer to Jesus and living as His disciples.

Learn about God and His love * Deepen your relationship with Jesus *Build lasting friendships * Be equipped to live and share our faith * Grow in understanding of the Mass and Catholic teachings * Grow in virtue and character * Be part of our parish family
