Stewardship Thought

"My God will fully supply whatever you need…"

- PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

WHAT ARE WE DOING WITH THE LORD'S VINEYARD?

Both in the Book of the Prophet Isaiah and the parable our Lord offers us this Sunday in the Gospel of St. Matthew we find ourselves being brought into vineyards. As anyone knows, vineyards exist to produce grapes which oftentimes are used to produce wine. The better the grapes in the vineyard the better the wine. Conversely, the more bitter the grapes the worst the wine. People who are hired to work in the vineyard have the responsibility of cultivating and nourishing the vines so that the best grapes are brought forth. If the vineyard workers become indifferent towards the vineyard, or turn against the vineyard and its owner that sabotage will destroy the vineyard as the grapes will be good for nothing and the wine, if in any is produced, will be of poor quality. The prophet and our Lord use this imagery to remind us that we are all called to be workers in the vineyard of the Lord. This vineyard is the Kingdom of God which is meant to produce the good fruits of faith, hope, charity, justice, mercy, and truth. When the laborers in the Lord's vineyard set about this work, they do so with a keen sense of the responsibility our Lord is placing on their shoulders. It is no burden though. Knowing they are loved, known, and called by name, they find it an honor participating in the Lord's work of building up the Kingdom of God on earth. As with the vineyard in Isaiah and in the parable, no matter how much work the owner puts into the vineyard he cannot control the laborers. They have free will to work well in the vineyard, become indifferent to it, or reject its work altogether. It is the same with us who are Christians in the vineyard of the Lord. There are many who are in fact indifferent to this call, or who are not even aware of it. This indifference leads the work of building up God's Kingdom incomplete and unnoticed by many. Then there are those who reject any invitation to work in the vineyard. The only work they seek is the work that satisfies themselves and the kingdom of the self. These undermine the vineyard and produce the bitter fruit of pride which is the root of all sin. The message in this Sunday's readings is straightforward. Living them is our choice; but a choice we must make. Those who accept the invitation are called today to recommit themselves to this work of eternal value. Those who are indifferent are invited to participate in this work that will bring them to a fuller life. Those who have consciously rejected this work are called to a humility that brings true peace. As always, the invitation is made. How we answer is up to us.

Fr. John Maduri
